Re: Petition of Coach USA, Inc. and Megabus Northeast, LLC to Reopen Approval of Fourth Amendment, STB Docket Nos. MC-
F-20904, MC-F-20908, and MC-F-20912

Dear Ms. Brown:

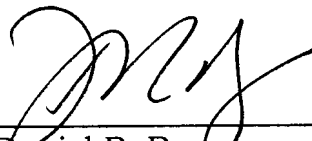

Greyhound Lines, Inc. ("Greyhound") and Peter Pan Bus Lines, Inc. ("Peter Pan") respectfully respond to the latest filing, on December 16, 2010, by Coach USA, Inc. and Megabus Northeast, LLC in the above three Surface Transportation Board dockets ("Megabus Letter").

Whatever the merits of the pending Coach/Megabus petition – and Greyhound and Peter Pan have previously argued, most recently in their joint filing on June 1, 2010, the petition is without merit – the matter is now fully argued and before the Board for decision. The Megabus Letter is untimely. Even more, it is wholly irrelevant. How Greyhound operates on particular lanes in the Midwest under market conditions thereon simply has no bearing on a pooling arrangement between Greyhound and Peter Pan on particular traffic lanes along the Northeast corridor. Petitioners' filing, which adds no
