1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: Good morning. My name
3 is Administrative Law Judge John Dring. Today, we 4 are here for oral arguments on a motion to sanction
5 and also other sundry motions in Surface
6 Transportation Board Docket Number AB 167, Conrail 7 Abandonment Exemption in Hudson County, New Jersey.

8 I appreciate the filings that the parties
9 have made in this docket so far and Mr. Montange.
10 Today, we are going to address the sanctions motion 11 first and the other motions after that. And I am 12 going to also impose a deadline for discovery. This 13 is coming to an end fairly soon.

14 The way I would like to proceed,
15 Mr. Montange, on your motion is to have you go 16 through each point and then have Mr. Riffin explain 17 why you're wrong, and if I have additional 18 questions, I will ask you.

19 MR. MONTANGE: Surely.

20 PRESIDING JUDGE: Do you understand?

21 MR. RIFFIN: Yes, sir.

22 PRESIDING JUDGE: Why don't you proceed,

1 Mr. Montange.

2 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, the motion for 3 sanctions, the only motion for sanctions at least 4 that I'm acquainted with is the motion filed by the 5 LLCs against City, et al. That motion basically 6 asks for no discovery. And the substance of the 7 argument or the gravamen of the argument as 8 reflected in the motion itself is that the discovery 9 is based upon unsubstantiated allegations of 10 conspiracy.

11 PRESIDING JUDGE: Let me cut through 12 something here. I guess I wasn't specific enough 13 with you, Mr. Montange.

14 I don't care about the conspiracy right
15 now. You alleged that following my August order, 16 that Mr. Riffin produced e-mails, and you allege he 17 did not follow my instructions.

18 MR. MONTANGE: Yes.

19 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's what I care
20 about. I care less about what you are attempting to 21 talk about. What I do care about is the integrity 22 of --

1 MR. MONTANGE: Yes, your Honor.

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: -- the judicial function
3 here. If any party was ordered to do something and 4 didn't do it, I don't appreciate that, and that's 5 what the sanctions would be about, not about a 6 conspiracy.

7 MR. MONTANGE: Yes, your Honor. Thank 8 you.

9 I'm sorry that I misunderstood, your 10 Honor. The issue, then, is the motions to compel 11 against Mr. Riffin and Mr. Riffin's objections 12 thereto.

13 To back up just a little bit, in response
14 to the second motion to compel filed by the City, 15 Mr. Riffin showed up at my -- while I was thinking I 16 was going to dinner, unannounced, the evening before 17 a hearing before your Honor which resulted in this 18 motion or your order that compelled him to make 19 discovery. And he offered at that point to make 20 discovery, to actually show me e-mails, to make 21 available his computer. It was unclear there was 22 even a WiFi connection at the restaurant we were at,

1 and I was there to eat, not to look at his computer.

2 The next day, however, he said that he 3 would make available the discovery, and that's what 4 your Honor entered as an order. He said he would 5 make available -- my understanding is that he 6 represents that his records are basically on his 7 e-mail system and that he would make those available 8 to me.

9 He said that he would send copies. That,
10 I thought, was agreement at that time.

11 On the date of the entry of the order, 12 which was August 25th, he did -- according to his 13 e-mail statements to the parties, at least to me, 14 said that he went to a library. Evidently, he 15 doesn't have an e-mail or Internet connection at his 16 own home or where he works.

17 So he went to a library, and he spent 18 approximately two hours at the library forwarding
19 e-mails, and he also prepared a letter to your Honor 20 during that time, which he sent making some 21 arguments. And I got a version of the letter also 22 from him the next day.

1 I think it was the next day. It may have 2 been that evening, August 25th. Anyway, it was 3 during the period of August 25th or 26th.

4 Immediately upon receipt of an e-mail from 5 him saying that he had concluded whatever discovery
6 he was going to make, I raised some questions about 7 whether the discovery response was, in fact,
8 complete, because I have documents from other 9 sources which indicate there should be other things 10 out there.

11 I received a response from him indicating 12 that if I wanted anything more, I should go see 13 Judge Dring. It wasn't what I wanted to hear, but I 14 tire of the chase. So that, in fact, is what we 15 have done.

16 We filed a motion to compel, and in the 17 motion for sanctions I list deficiencies that we 18 perceive in the discovery to date. I would -- when 19 I look at a discovery request, I view it from the 20 point of view of the municipality I primarily 21 represent, and when we are faced with discovery, we 22 make a good-faith response.

1 The LLCs take their discovery from us
2 under an Open Public Records Act that applies in New 3 Jersey, and they have to. I mean, the City has to.
4 Everything they've got gets turned over except for a 5 few attorney-client privileged things.

6 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, I can't hear very 7 well.

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: Why don't you sit at the 9 table.

10 MR. MONTANGE: Perhaps he should go sit on 11 his own side. This is Mr. Hyman.

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: Let's see if he will be 13 able to hear well enough over here.

14 Continue, please.

15 MR. MONTANGE: And I think under the 16 federal rules, which are generally what we were 17 supposed to comply with in STB, a party is supposed 18 to make a good-faith response. It's not a 19 cat-and-mouse game. The cat-and-mouse game started 20 at the first motion to compel when I got no response 21 at all, filed a motion, and on that day he then 22 responds with objections.

1 Second motion to compel, I file that, and 2 on the night before the hearing, he shows up with 3 his computer at around 8:00 p.m., 9:00 p.m. at night
4 and says here, have a look if the WiFi operates.

5 Well, it took him two hours at the 6 library, he said, to produce 100 e-mails. I suspect 7 I would have been past closing time at the 8 restaurant if the WiFi operated, and that would have 9 been if I weren't eating or trying to get ready to 10 prepare for the hearing the next day. That's not a 11 discovery response, your Honor.

12 When I received, then, the -- and he had 13 been denying that he had any responsive documents to 14 begin with. Then that changed the night before the 15 last hearing, the second motion to compel.

16 Now one of his things is he's given me all 17 of the responsive documents in the two hours, which 18 he said was all the time that he had at the library.
19 The library was closing, and he had to leave. So he 20 was going to stop, that was enough, it was 21 burdensome.

22 The entire tenor of the remarks I'm

1 receiving from him is this is an annoyance for him, 2 he's going to give me whatever he chooses to give me 3 and then leave.

4 We have documents, as I detail in my 5 motion, that indicate there should be more out 6 there. I happen to also have a Yahoo! e-mail system 7 as Mr. Riffin does.

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: Let me interrupt. As 9 you make points, you have the option of allowing 10 Mr. Riffin to refute them or comment.

11 Mr. Riffin, do you have any comments yet?

12 MR. RIFFIN: I think it might be more 13 appropriate to just let him finish.

14 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's fine.

15 MR. RIFFIN: And then I will respond.

16 PRESIDING JUDGE: That would be fine.

17 MR. RIFFIN: That way we're not talking 18 back and forth.

19 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right. I wanted to 20 give you that option.

21 MR. RIFFIN: I appreciate it. I'm 22 listening, and I'm making mental notes. When he

1 finishes, then I will respond appropriately.

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's fine.

3 MR. MONTANGE: So the whole tenor of his 4 approach -- and this is what we lay out, too, in our 5 motions for sanctions, is one of cat and mouse. And 6 the cost of pursuing any kind of discovery in those 7 circumstances becomes intolerable.

8 And the burden on the system, the burden
9 on STB and the burden on your Honor, if a good-faith
10 response is not made, then I have to make a motion, 11 and you have to hear the motion. It's frustrating 12 to you, and it's at least as frustrating to me at 13 this point, because I've been in this now for a 14 decade on behalf of the City.

15 I detail in the papers where we find 16 deficiencies. I would only add that I have a Yahoo!
17 mail system myself.

18 He says he's shown me what's on his 19 screen. If there's an original e-mail -- the way my 20 Yahoo! system works, it's conversational.

21 What appears on your screen will be the 22 last e-mail in the sequence. You have to hit

1 another button, you have to click on another line, 2 and then you get the rest, or you get the next 3 e-mail down the chain.

4 Click on another button, you will get the 5 next e-mail down the chain. Click on another 6 button, you will get the next e-mail, and 7 attachments may then be available to you, and those 8 are on the e-mail system.

9 If he just copies me on the chain, which 10 is what he's now represented in his last response, 11 if he just copies me what's on his screen, that 12 doesn't give me the chain. That doesn't mean the 13 chain doesn't exist. I asked for what was on the 14 e-mail system, not what was on his little laptop 15 computer screen at any given time.

16 If he's saying that he has no longer any 17 e-mails that, that he's removed all e-mails, then my 18 response is that's an abuse, because once we filed 19 our discovery against him in March, we asked for the 20 documents that he had. He was obligated to preserve 21 those documents and make them available and not just 22 throw them out at any given time in the future.

1 And in addition, as I read STB's 2 regulations, they say discovery obligations are 3 continuing. If he continues to get any documents
4 after March, if he continues to get any after July, 5 if he continues to get any after this date, it's a 6 continuing obligation that he make them available.
7 And he can't say well, this is all I have, and I
8 just -- I got rid of everything else, or I 9 expurgated my system.

10 One of his statements is -- and I will go 11 through this in a little bit more detail when I go 12 through his individual objections. But one of his 13 statements is he's deleting any e-mails that he 14 finds are not material to himself or his use at the 15 time. He'll just get rid of them now.

16 Well, if he's doing now and they're 17 documents I've requested, that's a breach of the 18 continuing obligation to make discovery. So what am 19 I to do? Just take this kind of stuff? Or complain 20 to the STB, which is what I have done, that I'm not 21 receiving a legitimate, cooperative discovery 22 response.

1 Now, let me back up and add one more thing
2 before I get into his 15 objections in detail. I've 3 got some notes on those, and we can go through them, 4 which is what I understood you to request.

5 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes.

6 MR. MONTANGE: The gravamen as I
7 understand it of the objection to discovery by both 8 Mr. Riffin and now the LLCs is that the City, 9 et al. -- or Montange in particular because they try 10 to personalize this to me, because I represent three 11 clients. Believe me, I would rather not be here, 12 but I took the job, and so I am.

13 The gravamen of their complaint against me
14 is that there is some kind of unsubstantiated 15 conspiracy that I'm trying to pursue. What's 16 happened in this 11-year dispute over the Harsimus 17 branch can be boiled down to a nutshell.

18 City, et al., wants to preserve the last 19 remaining transportation corridor going into 20 downtown Jersey City. It's not rocket science that 21 that makes sense from an urban planning point of 22 view. If you take a trip to Jersey City --

1 PRESIDING JUDGE: Mr. Montange, do we need 2 to get into this?

3 MR. MONTANGE: They're contesting --

4 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's later, isn't it?
5 What we are doing right now is seeing if Mr. Riffin 6 complied with my order; is that not correct?

7 MR. MONTANGE: Okay.

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: I'm asking you a 9 question.

10 MR. MONTANGE: One of his objections goes
11 to relevancy, and I like to hit --

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: I don't care about his 13 objections to relevancy.

14 MR. MONTANGE: Okay.

15 PRESIDING JUDGE: If he had an objection
16 to relevancy, he should have brought it to me. This 17 is not a self-help forum.

18 If you've got a problem with an order, you 19 bring it to me. You don't help yourself.

20 MR. MONTANGE: All right. Let me just go 21 through Mr. Riffin's objections and try to get 22 through this. Mr. Riffin's reply to motions for 1 sanctions is where his last set of objections are.

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: Are we looking at his 3 objections or your statements?

4 MR. MONTANGE: This is Jim Riffin's reply
5 to City, et al., motion for sanctions. His first 6 objection is I didn't paginate my motion.

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: I don't care about that.

8 MR. MONTANGE: Okay. I thought your Honor
9 would share that view with me.

10 Second objection, he says there that he 11 was ordered to forward a copy of whatever he retains 12 in his possession, and it's a little confusing, but 13 as I understand this objection, he seems to be 14 intimating that he doesn't have any more in his 15 possession.

16 What I am suggesting to your Honor is if 17 you review our papers, you will see documents that 18 he should have in his possession, unless he's 19 destroyed them. If he did destroy them after March 20 28th when I filed the interrogatory -- the document 21 request, then that would be a breach of the -- his 22 obligation to make discovery.

1 And in addition, there are -- there's this 2 problem of, if you have a Yahoo! e-mail system, you 3 have to hit buttons to get the whole e-mail chain.
4 In many instances, of which I've indicated a few, it 5 appears that he has provided me with one e-mail in a 6 chain, but there must have been more beyond that.

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: Let me just tell you, I
8 do not intend to spend any time whatsoever parsing 9 the meaning of the word "retain."

10 MR. MONTANGE: The third objection, he 11 says that he only has to make available documents to 12 inspect or copy, and he seems to be saying in the 13 third objection that I should go to Cockeysville, 14 Maryland, or accept whatever he gives me when he 15 shows up here and he makes available his computer 16 here.

17 I think discovery is -- your order 18 suggested he had to -- it stated to me that he had 19 to make it available and not ask me to look at his 20 computer here or --

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: This is not some overly 22 complicated formulaic process. We're using words as

1 they're commonly understood, and Mr. Riffin was 2 ordered to produce documents for you, his e-mails.

3 Again, I don't care about these overly
4 convoluted arguments about what words mean. We're 5 beyond that.

6 MR. MONTANGE: Okay. Your Honor, again --

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: I'm just telling you. I
8 know this is not offending you. I'm just telling 9 you how things are right now.

10 MR. MONTANGE: Okay. His fourth 11 objection, he claims that he sent me his 12 screenshots. Again, my statement is --

13 PRESIDING JUDGE: A screenshot is not an 14 e-mail. A screenshot is a screenshot. Is that 15 correct?

16 MR. MONTANGE: He says it's what showed up 17 on his computer monitor, which is what I call -- 18 okay.

19 The fifth objection, again, the fifth 20 objection is --

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: You know, I will not 22 accept arguments based on mental reservation. When

1 you take an oath, if you ever have the misfortune of 2 joining the federal service, you take an oath, and 3 part of that oath says that it's taken without 4 mental reservation. That actually means something 5 around here.

6 Do you understand that, Mr. Riffin?

7 MR. RIFFIN: I do.

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right. Proceed.

9 MR. MONTANGE: The fifth objection is he 10 says he has -- the document request, when I tender 11 it to a party that is a corporation, such as the 12 LLCs, always indicates that they have to -- or to an 13 individual dealing with a corporation, a corporation 14 is not some disembodied ghost that exists out there 15 that operates through agents and representatives.
16 So documents in its possession will be in possession 17 of its attorneys, its agent, anyone representing it.
18 Anyone purportedly speaking -- a consultant who is 19 working for the LLCs, for example, and communicating 20 with Mr. Riffin would be a representative of -- 21 representing that party.

22 Mr. Riffin states in his fifth objection

1 that he's only obligated to provide me with e-mails 2 from Mr. Horgan or Steve or Vicki Hyman, and he 3 doesn't have to provide them from anyone else.
4 That's how I read the fifth objection. And that is 5 not in compliance with what the document request 6 sought, and it is a exclusion of communications that 7 he would have with -- he admits later in his 8 objections that Mr. Hyman has operated through other 9 attorneys and that there are other people working 10 for Mr. Hyman, and he excludes all of them from his 11 e-mail response.

12 So that's a limitation that --

13 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's not what I had 14 contemplated either.

15 MR. MONTANGE: Nor I.

16 The sixth objection, this deals with 17 Mr. Nagel. Mr. Nagel --

18 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes, I saw that.

19 MR. MONTANGE: He claimed he doesn't know
20 who Mr. Nagel is, he said he heard of an architect.
21 But in the same objection, he says that Mr. Horgan 22 is the LLC's attorney, works for Mr. Hyman, and

1 Mr. Hyman is sometimes upset with Mr. Horgan and 2 consults with other attorneys. He acknowledges one 3 was Mr. Nagel, he says he did send Nagel some 4 material.

5 PRESIDING JUDGE: His memory was refreshed
6 after you provided the documentation.

7 MR. MONTANGE: Well, his memory was 8 refreshed even, it seems, as he go through his 9 objection. At first, he seems to be denying that he 10 knew, and then he seems to remember, and he can't 11 deny it after I provided him with the document.

12 But I don't see how that's an objection.
13 He's stating it as an objection, and it makes no 14 sense to me.

15 The seventh objection, the seventh and, I
16 think, the 11th objection both deal with this Forest 17 City matter. He doesn't wish to make available any 18 documents he has relating to -- or any of his e-mail 19 exchanges that he has dealing with Forest City. And 20 he says that that's irrelevant to this proceeding.

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: I'm looking at page 10, 22 and he says "relating in any fashion to the Harsimus

1 branch."

2 I would think that the development of that 3 Metro Plaza parcel -- that's what you're talking 4 about?

5 MR. MONTANGE: Yes.

6 PRESIDING JUDGE: Is related in some 7 fashion, quite distinct fashion, to the Harsimus
8 branch.

9 MR. MONTANGE: Absolutely, your Honor.

10 PRESIDING JUDGE: Again, Mr. Riffin, it 11 appears to me that you're parsing words very, very 12 carefully and not entirely logically, that you've 13 got your own intellectual construct for operating as 14 you answer questions.

15 Now, that seems to me to be mental 16 reservation. It could be other things. But it's 17 not -- it doesn't seem to me to be appropriate as 18 you make some attempt to comply with my order for 19 discovery.

20 Continue, please.

21 MR. MONTANGE: The eighth objection, in 22 the eighth objection, he says that my document

1 request is limited to all documents that may have 2 been authored by consultants -- copied, received or 3 authored or retained, maintained, by consultants, 4 officers, employees, negotiators, board members,
5 attorneys, otherwise working on behalf of any party, 6 who has filed a pleading in AB 167, the 1189 X. And 7 he says that he's not an attorney, board member, 8 negotiator, employee, officer, or consultant.

9 PRESIDING JUDGE: You think he's not a 10 negotiator?

11 MR. MONTANGE: Oh, I think he's a party.

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: He's filed an intent to 13 file an OFA, and if that's sufficient to give you a 14 property right in federal court in New Jersey, it's 15 probably sufficient to make you at least very 16 significantly involved in this case.

17 MR. MONTANGE: It makes you a party in 18 spades, your Honor. So that objection is a 19 nonstarter.

20 PRESIDING JUDGE: I agree with that.

21 MR. MONTANGE: Now, the ninth objection 22 isn't so much to my discovery as it is to an

1 objection that I made to his, quote, status report 2 that he sent to you, and the status report which he 3 sent to you -- this was a part of this e-mail letter 4 that he did on the same day he made discovery.

5 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yeah.

6 MR. MONTANGE: And he didn't serve it on 7 the parties. He's under two orders from the STB to 8 serve his pleadings on parties. I view that as 9 making substantive argument.

10 He never served it. He just sent it out.

11 He's sent e-mail copies, I think, to the 12 people in the OFA proceeding. That's the limit of 13 the service.

14 There are probably 15 or 16 more parties.
15 He's been ordered twice.

16 PRESIDING JUDGE: I agree with that, and 17 parenthetically, I've got a problem -- well, maybe 18 some others have operated within the letter of the 19 regulations. STB, my law clerk did some research.
20 At FERC, our ex parte communication regulations are 21 different than those at the Board, and I think the 22 Board allows a little bit of latitude there.

1 But suffice to say that, perhaps, some of 2 the communications I've received that weren't filed 3 with the Board were well-intended. They were meant 4 to inform me as to positions of the parties' 5 arguments.

6 Frankly, I found them to be intellectually 7 insulting, suggests that I'm not following the 8 docket, that I have not read enough materials. I 9 have read everything that's been filed in these 10 documents.

11 And I don't -- for your future reference, 12 not that we're going to have much more to do with 13 one another, but I don't appreciate it.

14 Continue, please.

15 MR. MONTANGE: If I've been a party to any 16 of that, I apologize.

17 PRESIDING JUDGE: I didn't mention any 18 names.

19 MR. MONTANGE: The 10th objection, your 20 Honor, is he says -- he complained that I said that 21 he terminated discovery, which I read his e-mail to 22 do. But he said there were no more relevant e-mails

1 to send.

2 If he, in fact, had no more -- I believe 3 that he has more relevant e-mails to send. From 4 everything he said, he's failed to make available 5 documents relating to his litigation dealing with 6 the Metro plaza project.

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: It seems like he just 8 got tired.

9 MR. MONTANGE: Yes, he just got tired.
10 That's the implication I got.

11 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's what I got out of 12 it. Oh, bother.

13 MR. MONTANGE: Yes. What was very 14 irritating is at the same time he didn't want to 15 spend more than two hours checking his own files, 16 and he was busily filing -- he's filed, I think, two 17 amended complaints against Forest City in the 18 interval.

19 PRESIDING JUDGE: It seems like this is 20 Mr. Riffin prioritizing his time, as most good 21 businesspeople do, and he waited because obligation 22 to respond to this discovery, perhaps with not

1 enough gravamen as he might have. He made a 2 business decision to spend two hours on this and 3 more time on doing other things.

4 We all make these decisions. Sometimes we 5 make mistakes doing it.

6 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, I concur in all
7 your statements. I feel that it was more than a 8 mistake. I think it was intentional and his way of 9 doing business.

10 PRESIDING JUDGE: Even if it's not, you 11 know, it shows poor judgment.

12 MR. MONTANGE: And Mr. Riffin, one would 13 have to say he's had quite a bit of experience in 14 STB proceedings, and one would think that he should 15 know his way around the block.

16 PRESIDING JUDGE: He seems to be a 17 sophisticated litigator.

18 MR. MONTANGE: Yes, in many, many, many 19 proceedings.

20 The 11th objection, he says that I've 21 imputed ill motive to him because several of his 22 e-mails appear to be in response to an undisclosed

1 e-mail. He says that he telephones people sometimes 2 asking for information and that then he gets an 3 e-mail response from Mr. or Mrs. Hyman back.

4 And that may be the case, your Honor, but 5 it appears to us that some of these e-mails are a 6 part of a conversational chain and that he, in fact, 7 has simply omitted the earlier e-mails in the chain.

8 In any event, that doesn't account for all 9 of the problems. Maybe one or two.

10 The 12th objection, he complains about a 11 lack of -- he says I complain -- this is, again -- 12 the 12th objection is another one about Forest City.
13 He think we already discussed that.

14 He denies -- he acknowledges that he went 15 to the office of -- when I use the term Forest City, 16 Forest City, G&S, there's a conglomeration. It's a 17 bunch of developers who have grouped together.

18 I call them Forest City only because 19 that's the first name on his complaint. G&S is 20 actually doing a lot of -- apparently doing a lot of 21 the legwork or at least is the one that Mr. Hyman 22 has been in contact with on this, according to the 1 affidavits filed.

2 And he is saying that he went to the 3 office of Mr. Wasser to hand a courtesy copy of 4 Riffin's complaint. He's trying to disavow any kind 5 of agreement, but I think then that goes to the 6 affidavit saying that he acknowledged an agreement 7 with Mr. Hyman at the meeting with Mr. Wasser.

8 And that being the case -- it's not really 9 a legitimate objection anyway, but what I'm saying 10 is, he appears to be hiding the ball in his 11 addressing it by insinuating there's no agreement 12 when he states that there is an agreement to Mr.
13 Wasser.

14 It's like the 13th chime of a clock. When 15 I see things like this from either of my 16 counterparties which seem to me to be contrary to 17 what I'm hearing in the field where they say one 18 thing to the STB, they say another thing to Jersey
19 City and they say another thing to the Forest City 20 people, I never know who is on first.

21 It's the 13th chime. It calls into 22 question everything they've said; it calls into

1 question everything they say in the future. You 2 just don't know what the true facts are.

3 I'm willing to impute -- or I'm willing to 4 credit Mr. Wasser. He has no bone to pick in this 5 proceeding. He didn't want to participate.

6 But because he saw issues with this, he 7 supplied an affidavit, a verified statement, stating 8 that he has been told there's an agreement. And 9 this was evidently in the presence of the two 10 gentlemen -- not Mr. Horgan, but the two gentlemen
11 on each side of him, Mr. Hyman --

12 MR. RIFFIN: I'm going to object at this 13 time. Any statement Mr. Wasser may have made, 14 because Mr. Wasser is not here, I'm going to object.

15 They're not relevant. They're not 16 material. And in addition, they're hearsay.

17 Mr. Wasser had an opportunity to be here.
18 If he wanted to put testimony on from Mr. Wasser, he 19 should have asked Mr. Wasser to show up, is what I 20 would be objecting to, your Honor.

21 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, the easiest way 22 for me to respond to that is the LLCs objected to 1 anyone providing testimony here at this hearing.

2 We're trying to do that. We supplied Mr. Wasser's 3 statement as a legitimate response to the motion for 4 sanctions filed against me, my clients, and it's a 5 part of the record.

6 PRESIDING JUDGE: I will let it stand.
7 That's fine.

8 MR. MONTANGE: Okay. Now, the 13th
9 objection, this really isn't to the discovery so 10 much as he objects to my calling his OFA, his intent 11 to file an OFA, an abuse of the OFA process.

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's outside the scope 13 of my order.

14 MR. MONTANGE: Okay. It goes into 15 defense. We have another view, of course.

16 PRESIDING JUDGE: I don't care. It's 17 outside the scope.

18 MR. MONTANGE: The 14th objection, he 19 objects to my inspection his e-mail account a second 20 time, and this is making me dizzy. First, I show up 21 at the last hearing, and he shows up at my 22 restaurant unannounced at 8:00 p.m. or 9:00 p.m. at

1 night offering to let me inspect, which was 2 impossible. We didn't even know if there would be a 3 WiFi connection there.

4 And then the next day, he says he will 5 make them available, which is then embodied in an 6 order. And then he says he's not going to do any 7 more.

8 And then again now he says -- what I said
9 in my motion for sanctions against him is I -- 10 basically at this point, it's the 13th chime of the 11 clock. I do not feel that one can get a reliable 12 response out of him, and someone needs to inspect 13 his e-mail system and see what's going on in there, 14 because I don't think that he --

15 PRESIDING JUDGE: Is this a part of his 16 failure to respond to my order?

17 MR. MONTANGE: No. It's really his 18 response to a remedy that I sought.

19 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's fine. I don't 20 want to hear it.

21 MR. MONTANGE: All right. And the 15th 22 objection is he -- again, it's an objection against

1 one of the remedies that I seek, and that is 2 attorney's fees.

3 And as I understand the objection, he's 4 says he's objecting to the position of the 5 apostrophe in attorney's fees. There's only one 6 attorney --

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: Fine. I don't care 8 about that.

9 MR. MONTANGE: Then the final one he's 10 called miscellaneous. He's got just a ticktack, 11 ticktack of different objections to me.

12 I don't know if this is where he complains 13 I threw a tantrum or something. I've not thrown any 14 tantrums. I've tried to be as succinct as I 15 possibly could.

16 PRESIDING JUDGE: Is there anything
17 relevant in these miscellaneous? I don't care how 18 vigorously you or anyone else advocates your 19 positions. I really don't.

20 MR. MONTANGE: There's nothing in here
21 that is a legitimate objection to the discovery
22 requests that I've made. To the extent he makes a

1 substantive point, we reserve on that.

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: If Mr. Riffin wants to 3 raise these miscellaneous items, I can review them 4 in seriatim.

5 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, I think that 6 that concludes my response to his objections. We 7 just thought there were none with any merit.

8 I would note if Mr. Riffin is excluded
9 from the OFA part of the proceeding, if he's barred 10 from issuing an OFA, then it will dramatically 11 curtail the need for my discovery against the LLCs, 12 because documents relating to their agreement with 13 Mr. Riffin will presumably be irrelevant because he 14 will be out of the proceeding, and their agreement 15 will be moot. That will address many of the issues 16 I have with them.

17 If he remains in the proceeding, and 18 because it's unclear -- because we just don't think 19 he's making available the documents, then I have to 20 ask the LLCs for the same kinds of things that we 21 have requested of him.

22 PRESIDING JUDGE: I understand. Thank

1 you.

2 Mr. Riffin, you have the floor.

3 MR. RIFFIN: Thank you, your Honor. I
4 start off with the discovery rules and what I'm 5 required to do. It's my understanding, having read 6 them, my obligation is to make them available for 7 inspection.

8 And some cases I have read have indicated 9 that the place of inspection is where the files are 10 kept. I realize that Mr. Montange's office is a 11 long ways away from where I keep my records.

12 Prior to this last meeting, I made an 13 effort to go to Mr. Montange, as he indicated. I 14 appeared at a restaurant and waited for him to show 15 up. It's not his restaurant. I actually was there 16 first.

17 I offered Mr. Montange an opportunity to 18 look at my e-mails. I brought my computer with me.
19 I got a WiFi code, accessed my e-mail account, put 20 it in front of him, and said you've asked to inspect 21 my e-mails, here they are, help yourself.

22 We reached an agreement. The agreement

1 was I was to forward to him whatever e-mails were 2 remaining in my e-mail account that involved 3 communications, electronic communications, between 4 me, Mr. Steve Hyman, and Ms. Vicki Hyman and the 5 LLCs. The LLCs, because they're legal entities, I 6 take that to mean any e-mails between me and 7 Mr. Horgan.

8 At the restaurant, he indicated to me what 9 he wanted me to do. He said "what I want you to do 10 is you type in the name, Hyman, into the search box.
11 Whatever comes up, send me a copy of whatever you 12 see." And that is precisely what I did.

13 I did not start this process saying I'm 14 going to give myself two hours to do it. I started 15 the process to complete the task. At the 16 restaurant, he indicated to me "this shouldn't take 17 you very long, you just do a couple clicks, and you 18 send a batch."

19 I'm not too computer-literate. I'm too 20 old to do that. I just didn't learn it.

21 I don't do social media. I rarely do
22 e-mails.

1 I don't like them. I don't trust them. I
2 just don't do it.

3 So I'm not very conversant at it. But 4 that doesn't mean I'm not willing to learn how to do 5 it, so long as someone helps me a little bit.

6 I appeared in your court, and I agreed I
7 would send him whatever is in my e-mail account, 8 whatever remains is the words that were used, and 9 that's the words that appear in your order.
10 Whatever is there, I'm going to send it to him, and 11 I'm not going to be fussy about is it relevant.

12 He's just spent a few minutes talking 13 about Metro Plaza. In discovery, we begin with how 14 does the party who is trying to do discovery define 15 the terms that he's using.

16 In this particular case, Mr. Montange has 17 defined the term "Harsimus branch." And he defines 18 that term as being between control point Waldo and 19 the west side of Marin Boulevard.

20 That's his definition. I didn't pick it.

21 In my definition, the Harsimus branch is 22 from CP Waldo all the way to the very end, and

1 that's considerably beyond the west side of Marin 2 Boulevard. The west side of Marin Boulevard is 3 milepost point 88. According to Conrail, the line 4 ends at milepost 136.

5 I don't make the definitions. I respond 6 to what you define.

7 You define the Harsimus branch to the west
8 side of Marin. You have asked me for any documents 9 between three particular persons for that portion of 10 that line.

11 I construed it much broader than that, as 12 it turns out. I literally gave Mr. Montange a copy 13 of every e-mail that I've either sent or received 14 from Steve Hyman, Vicki Hyman, Mr. Horgan, that's 15 still in my e-mail account, whether it related to 16 the Harsimus as he defined it, whether it related to 17 the Harsimus in its entirety, whether it was totally 18 unrelated. I just sent him everything.

19 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, I hate to 20 interrupt, but might I just read what I defined 21 the "Harsimus branch" to be?

22 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right.

1 MR. MONTANGE: I said Harsimus branch
2 shall mean any portion of the line of railroad
3 between CP Waldo and Marin Boulevard in Jersey City 4 transferred to line code 1420, which line of 5 railroad is the subject of abandonment proceeding
6 bearing STB Docket AB 167 and 1189 X.

7 And my position is we asked for anything 8 relating to any portion of that line.

9 PRESIDING JUDGE: Thank you.

10 Mr. Riffin?

11 MR. RIFFIN: To continue, I did not limit
12 what e-mails I sent to him. I literally gave him 13 every one I had.

14 I put Mr. Hyman's name in. He actually 15 comes up twice because he has two different e-mail 16 accounts.

17 I picked the first one, and I literally -- 18 first of all, I had to learn you can't send a batch.
19 I can't just say send them all.

20 No, you have to click on each and every 21 one of them, and you actually have to open it. You 22 have to be looking at it.

1 And it took me a little while to figure 2 that out. It took 30 minutes for me to figure out
3 how do you do this. But I took the time.

4 And then I proceeded to click on each and 5 every e-mail that came up on my computer system, on 6 my e-mail account. And I forward a copy to 7 Mr. Montange, to Mr. Horgan, to Robert Jenkins.

8 I think I sent to John Broder. He's the 9 attorney for Conrail also.

10 And I sent a copy to Mr. Strohmeier. So I 11 sent a copy to everyone who is actively 12 participating in this proceeding before you.

13 After I did all of the e-mails that were 14 for one of Mr. Hyman's account, I did the e-mails 15 that were in his second account. It didn't matter 16 if they were coming to me or going back. Whatever 17 came up, I forwarded it.

18 I did the same thing for Ms. Hyman. I did 19 the same thing for Dan Horgan.

20 It took me a little over two hours to do
21 that, and I noted when I came in, I noted when I 22 left, and I just made the observation this wasn't

1 quick and easy, this was actually time-consuming.

2 It wasn't what I was expecting.

3 I'm not complaining. I'm just letting you 4 know this took a lot longer than what I was led to 5 believe it would take me.

6 However, I sent you everything I had, and 7 then I counted them. I counted everything that was 8 on my screen. I count 103, and I send a e-mail, and 9 I say you should have received 103, because that's 10 what I sent, and if you didn't get 103, let me know.
11 We will figure out which one didn't show up at your 12 place.

13 Not all e-mails actually show up, I've 14 learned. So I've done what it is he's requested.

15 In your order, you indicated that the 16 parties need to make an attempt to resolve whatever 17 disputes we might have before we show up. On the 18 desk that's in front of you is a copy of an e-mail 19 that I sent to Mr. Montange a week or so ago, and 20 the e-mail says to Mr. Montange "if you would like, 21 I will show you my computer again a second time. I 22 will let you look at my e-mail account so that you

1 can verify that every e-mail that's sitting on here, 2 you've got it."

3 I offered to let him look at it yesterday.
4 He arrived yesterday.

5 I offered to let him look at it this 6 morning before this hearing. Mr. Montange has 7 declined all offers to look at my computer.

8 And one of the pleadings that I filed in 9 this court, I said if we're going to have a sanction 10 hearing, I would at least like to have the 11 opportunity to bring my computer, which I have done, 12 open it up, and let your Honor look at my e-mail 13 account. You can verify.

14 PRESIDING JUDGE: I can verify what's on 15 it now. I couldn't verify what was in there in 16 August or in March or any other time.

17 Thank you, but no thank you.

18 MR. RIFFIN: The decision was, and the 19 agreement was, whatever was in my e-mail account I 20 would send to you if it was there. I did not make 21 an agreement to send him e-mails that were long 22 since deleted. I delete e-mails.

1 However, since that August 24 hearing, I
2 have not deleted any e-mails between me, Mr. Hyman, 3 and Ms. Hyman. I actually have had no e-mails with 4 Ms. Hyman.

5 Horgan sends me copies of pleadings that 6 he filed. The discovery request says pleadings that 7 are filed is not included in what I need to send him 8 a copy of.

9 I offered several weeks ago, "Mr.
10 Montange, Mr. Hyman has sent me some e-mails" in the 11 last -- "since our last hearing in August." They 12 have absolutely nothing to do with the Harsimus.

13 One e-mail was about the political picture
14 in Jersey City. It had to do with major -- Fulop.
15 According to the article, he's no longer going to be 16 running for governor of New Jersey.

17 PRESIDING JUDGE: Mr. Riffin, I don't 18 care. Please continue. Try to stay on point.

19 MR. RIFFIN: So I offer Mr. Montange -- I 20 ask Mr. Montange, "Mr. Hyman has sent me some 21 e-mails. They don't relate to the Harsimus in any 22 shape or form, but if I would like a copy, I will

1 send you a copy."

2 And he replied I don't want them.

3 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, I object. I
4 did not reply that. I said "I don't play games," 5 Mr. Riffin.

6 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's fine. Thank you.

7 MR. RIFFIN: I agree. He didn't say I
8 don't want them. He said "I don't play games."

9 But that doesn't answer my question. Do 10 you want them or not? If you want them, here they 11 are. I will let you look at them.

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right.

13 MR. RIFFIN: As I just said, I am aware 14 that discovery requires me to continue to give him
15 e-mails if they are ongoing, which is why I asked 16 the question. Mr. Hyman has sent me some e-mails --

17 PRESIDING JUDGE: I'm not even concerned
18 about the ongoing at this point. If you can justify 19 your having turned over the e-mails I ordered as of 20 August, I would be quite satisfied with that, but I 21 don't see you doing that.

22 Now you're arguing about since August. I

1 don't care about since August, Mr. Riffin. I care 2 about the e-mails I ordered you to turn over to 3 Mr. Montange.

4 So please stay on cue there and address
5 that issue for me.

6 MR. RIFFIN: Your Honor, you ordered me to 7 send to him a copy of every e-mail --

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: I know it's a 9 continuing -- look, you've got more problems than 10 that.

11 MR. RIFFIN: I sent your Honor a status 12 report, and in that status report, I said, I have 13 sent to Mr. Montange and the other parties -- I have 14 forwarded a copy of each and every e-mail that is 15 remaining in my e-mail account as of August 24.
16 Actually, it was August 25th, because that was the 17 day I was doing it.

18 That's all there are. Now Mr. Montange 19 says -- he's accustomed, evidently, to looking at 20 multiple e-mails going back and forth, what he calls 21 a chain.

22 I don't e-mail. I don't have chains.

1 In one particular case, he says Ms. Hyman
2 sent you an e-mail with Nancy Bider's, telephone 3 number. I don't see an e-mail from me to her saying 4 would you, please, send me Nancy Bider's telephone 5 number.

6 That's because I didn't send her an 7 e-mail. I called her on the phone and asked "do you 8 happen to know what Nancy Bider's phone number is?"

9 She said "I will look it up and call you 10 back." She didn't call me back; she just e-mailed 11 it to me.

12 I don't do what normal people do today
13 with e-mails. I don't do e-mails.

14 For me, it's very difficult to do, because 15 I don't have e-mail access at my house. If I want 16 to use the Internet, I have to go to a library, or I 17 have to go to McDonald's get on WiFi. That's very 18 inconvenient, and I personally just don't like 19 e-mails.

20 PRESIDING JUDGE: Mr. Riffin --

21 MR. RIFFIN: So I just don't do it.

22 PRESIDING JUDGE: Mr. Riffin.

1 MR. RIFFIN: Yes.

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: I'm looking at 3 Mr. Montange's motion here on page 6, 4 "Deficiencies." Let's just go through these, shall 5 we?

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: "Number 1, Riffin
8 appears to have deleted all identification of the 9 recipients of the e-mails, example in Exhibit D, 10 other than himself or text and attachments. So he 11 has not furnished such e-mails in their totality." 12 Please address that.

13 MR. RIFFIN: It took me a little while to 14 figure out -- I'm not quite sure if I actually 15 understand what he's trying to say. What I did, I 16 took the e-mail --

17 PRESIDING JUDGE: Let's look at D. Let's 18 look at Exhibit D.

19 He says that's an example of the problem.
20 So let's just take a look at it.

21 MR. RIFFIN: If you told me what page 22 you're looking at, I will look at it. Did you

1 number your pages?

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: No.

3 MR. RIFFIN: Give me some hint of what 4 you're looking at.

5 PRESIDING JUDGE: Exhibit D.

6 MR. RIFFIN: Exhibit E.

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: Delta.

8 MR. HORGAN: Your Honor, I will show him 9 my copy so we can move on.

10 PRESIDING JUDGE: Thank you.

11 MR. RIFFIN: As an example, he gives -- 12 I'm looking at an e-mail that says Thursday, August 13 25, at 2:11 p.m. And it says that on "February 14 18th, Steve Hyman wrote," and there's no indication 15 that he wrote anything. It turns out he didn't.

16 PRESIDING JUDGE: Oh, so it was just a
17 mistake? It's not an omission of text; it's just a 18 mistake? If you send an e-mail with nothing in it, 19 I trust that most --

20 MR. RIFFIN: Sometimes it does that. I
21 can ask Mr. Hyman.

22 PRESIDING JUDGE: Continue.

1 MR. RIFFIN: Let me tell you what I did,
2 your Honor. I took each and every copy of e-mail
3 that Mr. Montange placed in his sanction document.

4 I went to the library. I called up my 5 e-mail.

6 I looked at my screen, and I compared what 7 I see on my screen with what's on his piece of 8 paper. And I want to see, is there anything on my 9 screen that is not on his piece of paper.

10 It turns out they're exactly identical.
11 What you received is what I have. It's all I have.

12 I haven't touched it. I sent you what I 13 have, and I verified, by having a photocopy of what 14 he received, that what Yahoo! sent to him is 15 precisely what is sitting in front of me.

16 So I verified each and every one. You 17 have an exact copy of precisely the same thing that 18 I have.

19 I can't do more than that, because there 20 isn't any more. It just isn't there.

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right. So --

22 MR. RIFFIN: Which is why I've offered

1 multiple times to Mr. Montange, look at my computer, 2 look at my e-mail account, verify it for yourself.
3 I have given you everything there is. There just 4 isn't any more. Now, you may find it hard to 5 believe that there isn't any more, but I'm sorry, 6 it's not there.

7 If Ms. Hyman sends me an e-mail with a 8 phone and you're wondering why did she do that, and 9 you're looking for an e-mail from me to her, I 10 didn't ask her the question with an e-mail. I 11 called her on the telephone.

12 I use telephones. I don't use e-mails.

13 Quite frequently, Mr. Hyman just sends me
14 stuff. He thinks it's interesting.

15 Most of the time, it is. Not necessarily 16 relevant to this proceeding or the 1189 proceeding.

17 It is interesting. He just sends it.

18 Sometimes people send him things and he 19 just forwards it on to me, no comment. It's just 20 there. It sometimes takes me a few minutes to 21 figure out why did you send me this, because there's 22 no message with it.

1 PRESIDING JUDGE: Hold on a second. We 2 don't need to flog that one anymore.

3 Let me ask you something. You stated on 4 the record that you spent two hours retrieving 5 e-mails, and you decided that that was enough and 6 that if Mr. Montange --

7 MR. RIFFIN: I didn't decide --

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: -- wanted more, he would 9 have to go to me to get that? You said that?

10 MR. RIFFIN: Your Honor, I didn't decide 11 it was enough. I was at the bottom of the list.
12 There weren't any more.

13 PRESIDING JUDGE: Then why would you say 14 "if you want more, you will have to go to Judge 15 Dring"?

16 MR. RIFFIN: Mr. Montange has asked that I 17 provide him with e-mails between me and the agent of 18 the LLCs. I don't have a clue who the agents might 19 be. I know that Mr. Horgan --

20 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's not responsive to 21 my question. That's not responsive to my question.
22 I asked you, why would you tell

1 Mr. Montange if he wanted more, he would have to 2 come to me with an order?

3 MR. RIFFIN: Because he wasn't satisfied
4 with what I gave him. He said "you only have 103?
5 You should have more than that."

6 Well, I'm sorry, I don't.

7 He said "I have copies of e-mails" from me
8 to somebody else, or somebody else to me, I don't 9 know which way it went, but he said I have a copies 10 of e-mails with my name and somebody else's name on 11 it.

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: You seem otherwise
13 articulate. What on earth could have possessed you 14 to say "if you want more, you have to go to Judge 15 Dring"?

16 MR. RIFFIN: He indicated he has copies of 17 e-mails, I think they're from me to somebody else or 18 somebody else to me, I don't remember which one it 19 was, but he said "I have copies of e-mails with your 20 name on it. You didn't send me a copy of this 21 particular e-mail."

22 And my response is "I don't have it." The 1 e-mail was sent a long time ago. It wasn't 2 relevant. I didn't have any reason to keep it.

3 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right. If you don't 4 want to answer my question, let's move on.

5 Go ahead. What's your next point?

6 MR. RIFFIN: So Mr. Montange is asking for 7 e-mails between me and parties other than Mr. Hyman, 8 Ms. Hyman, Mr. Horgan. If he wants e-mails from 9 someone other than those three people -- and those 10 are the only three people that I agreed to provide 11 him e-mails from -- then someone needs to tell me 12 I'm required to give them to him, and that would be 13 you. So far, you haven't said I need to give him 14 e-mails from parties more than the three I just 15 mentioned.

16 He wants e-mails between me and, he calls 17 them, agents of the LLCs.

18 MR. MONTANGE: Or reps.

19 MR. RIFFIN: He mentions some guy named 20 Bruce Nagel. When he first mentioned it, I didn't 21 have a clue who Bruce Nagel was.

22 I put Bruce Nagel in my e-mail search

1 thing. Nothing came up.

2 It said "no Bruce Nagel found. Try the 3 Internet."

4 So I typed in Bruce Nagel in the Internet, 5 who's Bruce Nagel, and it comes up with some 6 architect. I vaguely remember Mr. Hyman told me --
7 I had a conversation with Mr. Hyman's architect a 8 long time ago, and maybe that's what his name was.
9 I didn't remember.

10 As it turns out, someplace along this 11 line, I think I actually saw a copy of an e-mail 12 that I sent to a Bruce Nagel, and once I saw the 13 e-mail, then I said oh, that's who Bruce Nagel is.
14 Bruce Nagel, as it turns out -- some time ago, 15 Mr. Hyman was looking for other lawyers to represent 16 him. He wasn't pleased with the progress in the 17 1189 proceeding.

18 And what he would tend to do was he would 19 tend to either call me, we would talk, he would 20 think of some lawyer that he knows, and he would say 21 well, let me call this lawyer, and he would call 22 them, put him on the phone, and we would have a

1 three-way conversation. And he would ask me, "tell 2 whoever this lawyer is what this case is about."

3 And so I would tell the lawyer what the 4 case was about from my perspective. Then I would 5 never hear from the lawyer again ever.

6 In the case of Bruce Nagel, Mr. Hyman, we 7 had a three-way conversation with Bruce Nagel, 8 Mr. Hyman, and me. It lasted for probably a good 30 9 minutes.

10 Bruce Nagel said "send me something in 11 writing." So I typed up something, and I sent it to 12 him, and I never heard from him again.

13 After a number of months, I deleted it. I 14 think this was in 2015. It was long before 15 Mr. Montange is starting to ask for e-mails.

16 I totally forgot, who is Bruce Nagel. I 17 only talked to the man once. And if you don't 18 communicate back with me, I'm not going to remember 19 who you are.

20 And I presume the reason they don't 21 communicate back with me is because I'm not their 22 client. I'm not trying to hire them.

1 Mr. Hyman is thinking about hiring them.
2 He did that with a considerable number of lawyers 3 and other professionals.

4 So have I had conversations with many 5 people because of Mr. Hyman? Yes. Most of the 6 conversations were on a telephone.

7 Did I occasionally send these individuals 8 an e-mail with an outline of what this 1189 case is 9 about? Yes.

10 Did I keep the e-mail? No, because after 11 three or four months I don't have a reason to keep 12 it.

13 I'm not like most people. Some people 14 have got 20-, 30,000 e-mails in their e-mail 15 account.

16 I don't think I have a thousand. I make a 17 point of not having them.

18 I don't want them. I don't believe in 19 collecting them.

20 I told you at the very beginning, I don't 21 like the Internet. I don't trust it. So I don't 22 like leaving stuff out there in the Internet.

1 Now, the agreement was, and your order
2 was, I am to provide him with all the e-mails
3 between me, Steve Hyman, Vicki Hyman, Dan Horgan. I 4 read your order three or four times to make sure I, 5 in fact, read it correctly. Remaining in my 6 account. I sent him every one in my account.

7 After finishing that task, I then noted
8 what time it was, and I thought that took two hours.
9 It actually took a little over a minute for each and 10 every one of them, and I thought that was a lot more 11 time than I thought.

12 But I still did it. It was easier, 13 quicker, more efficient just to send it to him than 14 it was to argue with him before you and have you 15 rule yes, you have to send him this, no, you don't 16 have to send him that. That's an argument you're 17 going to hear shortly between these two gentlemen.

18 I took the less difficult path. If you 19 want it, here it is.

20 I don't have an objection to you seeing 21 whatever you want to see. I'm not trying to hold 22 anything back from you, which is why I brought my

1 computer with me today, which is why I have 2 continually offered to Mr. Montange, "if you want to 3 see my e-mails, here's my computer, I'll open it up, 4 I'll put it on my e-mail account, do what you want,
5 you know how to do it, I don't. You can look at it 6 to your heart's content."

7 And he doesn't want to verify that that's 8 all there is, because he keeps thinking there ought 9 to be more. Well, there just isn't. I don't do 10 things like people today in this electronic age do.

11 I just -- I don't. I'm sorry.

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: We've now heard that 13 argument --

14 MR. RIFFIN: Half a dozen times.

15 PRESIDING JUDGE: I was only going to say 16 three or fewer times. Do you have anything else to 17 provide in your defense?

18 MR. RIFFIN: Mr. Montange is looking for 19 chains, as he calls it. I understand what a chain 20 is because on that desk for your Honor's benefit, if 21 your Honor wants it, is a set of e-mails between 22 Mr. Montange and Mr. Horgan, and there's probably

1 half a dozen of them there, and I presume that's 2 what he means by "chain." Okay.

3 At least I know what a chain is now. I 4 don't do that, or rarely do that.

5 I've offered Mr. Montange the opportunity 6 to inspect. Under the discovery rules, that is my 7 duty. I have to offer you the opportunity to 8 inspect whatever it is you would like to see that's 9 relevant.

10 PRESIDING JUDGE: Your duty is to comply 11 with my order.

12 MR. RIFFIN: Now let's talk about Metro
13 Plaza.

14 PRESIDING JUDGE: Let me explain something
15 to you. This might help you in the future.

16 If you think that a judge gives you an 17 order that is incorrect, all you have to do is seek 18 interlocutory appeal. That's the way to do it.

19 MR. RIFFIN: I didn't think your order was 20 incorrect.

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: Well, you've cited the 22 discovery rules, what you had to do, and suggested

1 that what I ordered you to do was beyond the 2 discovery rules.

3 All I'm saying is if you think that's 4 true, take interlocutory appeal.

5 MR. RIFFIN: I don't. While what you 6 ordered is beyond -- but you only ordered it because 7 I agreed to it. If I agree to do more than what I'm 8 obligated to do --

9 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right. Let's --

10 MR. RIFFIN: I agreed to providing it.

11 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right. That's the 12 extent of my trying to help. Please continue.

13 MR. RIFFIN: He makes mention of a Greg 14 Wasser visit. In his mind, there's no distinction
15 between Forest City and Greg Wasser, who is G&S 16 Investors.

17 In my mind, there's a very big 18 distinction. Totally different entities.

19 Their offices are in different parts of 20 New York. One is in Brooklyn. One is in Manhattan.

21 If you say "I have a report that you went 22 to the offices of Forest City," I've never been to 1 Forest City's offices. I know where they're at, but 2 I've never been there.

3 I've been to the front of the building,
4 but they wouldn't let me go to the office. I
5 couldn't get past security. All of this is past 6 August 24th, by the way, your Honor.

7 Your Honor's order and my agreement was I
8 would provide him with everything that I had left 9 before August 24th. I did that. I've offered 10 Mr. Montange multiple opportunities to verify that, 11 and he chooses not to verify it.

12 All he does is wants to speculate that I 13 probably didn't because he's expecting more. Well, 14 I don't know what you're expecting.

15 All I can do is give you what I have, and 16 I gave him everything that I had, and I didn't 17 time-limit it. I didn't look at my watch and say 18 oh, I've been here two hours, I'm going to quit.

19 No, I quit when I was at the very last 20 one. There weren't any more. That's an appropriate 21 time to quit.

22 Your Honor has indicated you don't have a

1 high interest in what has happened post-August 25, 2 but Mr. Montange has spent some time talking about 3 post-August 25. Would your Honor want to hear some 4 more about Forest City and Metro Plaza?

5 PRESIDING JUDGE: If you think that will 6 help your case, by all means. Don't just talk to me 7 about things that aren't relevant to what we are 8 trying to accomplish here today.

9 MR. RIFFIN: It is my understanding that 10 the litigation between me, Forest City, G&S 11 Investors, has absolutely nothing to do with the 12 proceeding that we are here for, which is 1189.
13 That is a totally separate proceeding. The only 14 party in that proceeding that is also a party in 15 this proceeding happens to be me.

16 I indicated to Mr. Montange when we met at 17 that restaurant, I am following in the steps of 18 Mr. Montange. I am imitating him.

19 Mr. Montange asked the STB to determine 20 what's the proper classification for the track 21 segments that were on the embankment. They're lines 22 of railroad.

1 And after a considerable amount of 2 litigation that went on for six years or so -- it 3 was a long time -- it was ultimately determined 4 they're lines of railroad. Unfortunately,
5 Mr. Montange limited his query to the track segment 6 between CP Waldo and Marin Boulevard. Part of the 7 reason for that, I would assume, is because that's 8 the only segment that Jersey City has a desire to 9 acquire with the OFA process.

10 My notice of intent to file an offer of 11 financial assistance extends to the west side of the 12 light-rail line. That's another 1,500 feet. That 13 is on the east side of what's called Metro Plaza.

14 It has not been determined that the track 15 segments that go across there are, in fact, lines of 16 railroad. Conrail, in their abandonment exemption, 17 indicate "it's been determined it is a line of 18 railroad to Marin Boulevard; it has not been 19 determined if it's a line of railroad beyond there, 20 east of there, to where it looks like this line used 21 to end at milepost 1.36. However," Conrail 22 says, "out of an abundance of caution, we are

1 seeking abandonment authority for the rest of it if 2 we need to."

3 And the ultimate question is, is it a line
4 of railroad. If it's a line of railroad, they need 5 abandonment authority.

6 If it's not, they don't need authority.
7 They can do whatever they want with it.

8 Because I have an interest in another 9 1,500 feet of this track segment, I need to 10 determine is that a line of railroad. If it's a 11 line of railroad, then I have a right to make an 12 attempt to acquire it with the OFA process.

13 If it's not a line of railroad, I don't 14 have that right. You can only use the OFA process 15 to acquire a line of railroad.

16 The U.S. Supreme Court, U.S. v. Idaho, the 17 Fifth Circuit, New Orleans Terminal Company, the 18 Seventh Circuit, Illinois Commerce Commission, have 19 all ruled the most appropriate place to determine 20 the classification for a class segment is in a 21 court. Based on those rulings, I went to a court, 22 the appropriate court, the U.S. District Court in 1 Newark, which sits five, seven miles from where the 2 track segment is.

3 PRESIDING JUDGE: I read your pleadings.

4 MR. RIFFIN: I am asking that court to 5 make a determination, the track segments that went 6 across Metro Plaza, are they lines of railroad.

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: Remind me again when 8 we're discussing this when we're trying to determine 9 whether you followed my --

10 MR. RIFFIN: Because Mr. Montange seems to 11 think that any communications between me and Metro 12 Plaza, any documents that has anything to do with 13 this complaint in Jersey City are relevant to this 14 proceeding, and he wants a copy of them.

15 PRESIDING JUDGE: I understand. Your 16 point is well-taken.

17 MR. RIFFIN: And I am arguing --

18 PRESIDING JUDGE: Your point is 19 well-taken. Thank you very much. Why don't we talk 20 about something else.

21 MR. RIFFIN: We get back to, did I violate 22 your order. I don't think I did. I tried very hard

1 to comply with it.

2 In fact, another aspect of that order was 3 I was required to provide Mr. Montange with the 4 bankruptcy docket numbers for my three bankruptcy 5 cases. As it turns out, on the 25th, I didn't have 6 the numbers at the time that I completed sending the 7 e-mails. But your order said I had until close of 8 business on the 26th.

9 So I found the docket numbers, and on the 10 26th, I sent Mr. Montange and everybody else an 11 additional e-mail, and I said by the way, here's the 12 three docket numbers for my three bankruptcy
13 proceedings, and your status in the status report 14 letter that I sent to your Honor, I typed it up on 15 the 25th. Not knowing that I wasn't going to be 16 able to complete all of my tasks.

17 PRESIDING JUDGE: I don't think that's at 18 issue here. That's not at issue here.

19 MR. RIFFIN: Actually, Mr. Montange made 20 it a big issue. He said "I want an exact copy of 21 what" I sent to your Honor.

22 I said all you have to do is take your

1 copy, line out the 25 and write in 26. You will 2 have an exact copy.

3 PRESIDING JUDGE: Mr. Montange, did
4 Mr. Riffin send you the bankruptcy numbers?

5 MR. MONTANGE: We acknowledge he sent us 6 the bankruptcy numbers.

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: Let's not talk about the 8 bankruptcies anymore.

9 MR. RIFFIN: Okay. Mr. Montange alleges 10 to this court, speculates to this court that there's 11 more.

12 I'm sorry. I gave you everything I have.

13 I'm offering you the opportunity to verify 14 what it is I have. He chooses not to take advantage 15 of that.

16 I don't see where there's anything that I 17 might even remotely possibly do more than what I've 18 already done. I can't do any more. I can't think 19 of anything more.

20 If he wants communications, documents
21 between me and parties other than the Hymans and 22 Mr. Horgan, I would like your Honor to

1 say "Mr. Riffin, you need to provide Mr. Montange 2 with documents between individuals, entities other 3 than those three," because as far as I can tell, 4 those are the only three that are relevant to this 5 proceeding. But if your Honor says I have to 6 provide Mr. Montange with documents from the LLCs' 7 agents, my question is, how do I find out who their 8 agents are? I could ask Mr. Horgan, but I don't 9 think Mr. Horgan has to tell me.

10 And if he doesn't tell me, how do I comply
11 with your Honor's order that I have to provide him
12 with communications between me and their agents if I 13 don't know who their agents are and if nobody 14 verifies they're the LLCs' agents? When I spoke 15 with Bruce Nagel, was he an agent of the LLCs? I 16 don't think so.

17 I don't know, but I don't get that 18 impression. It's my impression that Mr. Hyman 19 called Mr. Nagel on the telephone, did not retain 20 him as lawyer.

21 He just talked to him as a friend. He 22 knows him.

1 It's not my impression that Mr. Hyman has 2 ever hired Mr. Nagel. If the LLCs haven't hired 3 Mr. Nagel, he's not their agent.

4 But how am I to know that? I'm not privy 5 to this information. And that's where I have 6 problems.

7 What Mr. Montange is asking for, I'm not 8 privy to. It's not my information, and I can't 9 compel Mr. Horgan to provide it to me.

10 Your Honor probably could, but I can't do
11 it. I can ask nicely, but that's all I can do.

12 And Mr. Horgan has indicated it's none of 13 my business, and I'm inclined to agree with him.
14 It's not my business.

15 I can provide Mr. Montange with 16 communications between people that I communicate 17 with. If I control it, I can give it to you, so 18 long as I still have it.

19 I'm making a point of not deleting any 20 e-mails between these parties and me just in case he 21 wants to see them. Which is why I asked him, "do 22 you want them? I will give them to you. But if you

1 don't want them, I'm not going to take the time to 2 send you something you've indicated you have no
3 interest in looking at, particularly when it looks 4 like it doesn't relate to this proceeding."

5 The politics in Jersey City doesn't have 6 anything to do with this proceeding, I don't 7 think, "but if you want it, I will send it to you."
8 I'm not trying to hide or withhold anything.

9 I believe in full disclosure. That's just 10 what I believe in.

11 I give people things that people tell me
12 you shouldn't have gave them that. I do it anyway.
13 I don't try to hide anything.

14 And I especially make it a point of 15 complying with judge's orders, and I made a 16 particular point of complying with yours, because 17 you made it very clear, you don't comply with your 18 orders, there are going to be consequences, and they 19 won't be pleasant. So I'm very cognizant of what 20 your Honor said.

21 That's why I read your Honor's order
22 multiple times, to make sure that I was in full

1 compliance. That's why I took it to heart.

2 Your Honor said make an effort to resolve 3 your differences before you show up today. I did, 4 but I can't force Mr. Montange to do something he 5 doesn't choose to do.

6 I can offer. That's all I can do.

7 Thank you, your Honor.

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: Thank you.

9 Mr. Montange?

10 MR. MONTANGE: I will be very brief, I
11 hope, your Honor, because I would like to catch a 12 plane.

13 In response to my first set of document 14 requests, Mr. Riffin -- the document requests were 15 March 28. In response to a motion when I finally 16 filed my first motion to compel, then he responded 17 with objections. In his objections, he asserts that 18 he reads and then discards e-mails immediately.

19 When we filed our second motion to compel,
20 then he suddenly discovered that he had over 100 21 e-mails. Again, this is the 13th chime of the clock 22 problem.

1 On my second motion to compel, I attached
2 a verified statement from Eric Strohmeier, CNJ 3 railroad. Mr. Strohmeier says he's familiar with 4 Mr. Riffin's habits and that Mr. Riffin stores stuff 5 on his computer basically.

6 So we had that going on. The e-mail from 7 Mr. Strohmeier, he said he had seen Mr. Riffin's 8 e-mail account shortly before his July 1st, 2016, 9 July 1st, 2016, verified statement, and it had 10 e-mails on it.

11 If there were e-mails on that that were 12 not revealed to me and they're no longer in 13 existence, then that's a destruction of evidence 14 that's germane to the proceeding, highly germane to 15 the proceeding. He was under an obligation after 16 March 28 not to destroy anything. Mr. Strohmeier 17 said he had stuff on there, and he obviously did, 18 because he downloaded --

19 MR. RIFFIN: Your Honor, I'm going to 20 object. Mr. Strohmeier is in the room. If we want 21 testimony from Mr. Strohmeier, put him on the stand.
22 I want to cross-examine him.

1 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, if I might 2 continue. In Mr. Riffin's e-mail exchange with me
3 on August 25th when he said he was done, I stated 4 that the agreement that he had was to supply 5 information -- all e-mails between himself and the 6 LLCs.

7 That's what your Honor's order says, LLCs.
8 It doesn't say Mr. and Mrs. Hyman and Mr. Horgan and 9 you.

10 It says the LLCs. The definition of LLCs 11 includes any of their reps or agents, anyone that's 12 working for them.

13 When I received this information, I said 14 what about these other guys, like Nagel, and he 15 responded that "are you now asking for Nagel and the 16 surveying folks? The library shuts down its 17 computers in a few minutes, so I cannot research 18 those entities tonight. If lucky, they may let me 19 do it tomorrow." But then he later says if I want 20 any more I have to see you.

21 It seems to me he's acknowledging on 22 August 25th that there were at least those other

1 reps out there. And I have evidence that -- even 2 though he said in his objections that he discards --

3 MR. RIFFIN: Once again, your Honor, I'm 4 going to object. If he has evidence, present it.

5 MR. MONTANGE: The evidence is in your own
6 typography. You said in your objections you
7 discarded stuff immediately upon receipt. You 8 proved that that's false by supplying 103 e-mails, 9 by your count, to us that are responsive --

10 MR. RIFFIN: And I have testified --

11 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right, all right, 12 all right. That's enough out of both of you. I am 13 going to adopt Mr. Montange's arguments that he 14 filed in the motion to impose sanctions and his oral 15 arguments today.

16 In addition to relying on the written 17 evidence in this case and Mr. Montange's testimony, 18 there is a line of cases out of the Fourth 19 Circuit -- the other circuits have not, to my 20 knowledge, addressed the issues. But that line of 21 cases has to do with demeanor credibility
22 assessments made by U.S. administrative law judges.

1 Under that line of cases, I am making the 2 determination that, Mr. Riffin, I do not find you to 3 be a credible witness. I find that you appear to 4 have mental reservations and are not -- not 5 constrained, apparently not sufficiently 6 constrained, in telling the truth all the time. I 7 don't appreciate the way you've deported yourself, 8 and your deportment suggests that Mr. Montange is 9 correct and that you are not correct in what you 10 have testified to.

11 As a remedy, I am going to strike your -- 12 all of your pleadings from the dockets that are 13 before us today in the Harsimus branch proceeding.
14 I am going to prohibit you from participating 15 further, from introducing in evidence any other 16 documentation, documents or evidence in these 17 dockets. I'm dismissing you from the proceedings, 18 and I'm awarding Mr. Montange the attorney's fees 19 that he requested in his motion.

20 MR. RIFFIN: Your Honor?

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes.

22 MR. RIFFIN: I would like an accounting of 1 what his attorney's fees are. He makes it very 2 clear that when he computed that he was computing it 3 and including within that a considerable number of 4 hours that he spent dealing with the LLCs. And I 5 would ask you to clarify, when you say you're 6 dismissing me from this proceeding, are we talking 7 about this discovery proceeding or from 1189?

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: 1189. I'm dismissing 9 you from the entire proceeding and striking all of 10 your pleadings, which includes your intent to file 11 an OFA. They're all stricken from the docket.

12 Now, you can appeal this to the full 13 Board, and after that, you can appeal it to the 14 circuit. You can appeal it as far up as you want, 15 but that's my ruling today.

16 Mr. Montange, as to your fees?

17 MR. MONTANGE: As to my fees, your Honor, 18 I tried to exclude anything dealing with the LLCs.
19 They were all devoted to the discovery against 20 Mr. Riffin. That was my primary -- the only reason 21 I ultimately filed anything against the LLCs was 22 because it became obvious that Mr. Riffin was not

1 being candid. But the --

2 MR. RIFFIN: Your Honor?

3 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes.

4 MR. RIFFIN: I would argue that he was at 5 this proceeding the last time not just because of 6 me. He was here also because of the LLCs.

7 I shouldn't be chargeable for his travel
8 expenses to come to that hearing. Anything that 9 doesn't relate directly to me, I should not be 10 chargeable for.

11 And I would ask your Honor to order
12 Mr. Montange to provide the Court and me with a 13 complete accounting as to what expenses were 14 directly related to me and what expenses -- and 15 exclude any expenses that have no direct relation 16 exclusively to me. If he had incurred an expense 17 and it has anything to do with the LLCs, I shouldn't 18 be responsible for those expenses.

19 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's reasonable.

20 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, if I am to 21 provide an accounting, then I would like to include 22 all expenses up to and through today.

1 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes.

2 MR. MONTANGE: And I suspect that 3 Mr. Riffin will end up further -- with a further 4 charge beyond what's in the current amount that's 5 lying before him.

6 PRESIDING JUDGE: Let's provide that 7 accounting.

8 MR. MONTANGE: I will do so.

9 PRESIDING JUDGE: Enter it into the 10 record.

11 MR. MONTANGE: I will do so, your Honor.

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: And then I will issue an 13 order after I see it in the record.

14 MR. MONTANGE: Fine, your Honor.

15 PRESIDING JUDGE: Just don't include the 16 LLCs.

17 MR. MONTANGE: Nothing with the LLCs.

18 PRESIDING JUDGE: Costs excluded -- your 19 travel.

20 Mr. Riffin?

21 MR. RIFFIN: That's what I want.

22 PRESIDING JUDGE: Mr. Riffin, thank you

1 for your participation today. I am issuing an order
2 concurrent with the order that I stated I'm issuing 3 on Mr. Riffin's participation, or lack thereof in 4 the future, an order ending discovery in this case.
5 Further discovery requests will be served no later
6 than December 15th, and replies will be no later 7 than December 30th of this year.

8 Now, as to Mr. Horgan's motion against 9 you, do you have anything else that you need from 10 the LLCs?

11 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, once Mr. -- as 12 I said at the very inception, once Mr. Riffin is 13 out -- if he's out of the proceeding, then that 14 moots much of the discovery against them.

15 PRESIDING JUDGE: How about all of the 16 discovery against them?

17 MR. MONTANGE: The only remaining question
18 we have is who is the agent, who is the management 19 of the LLCs. We do have evidence now that 20 Mr. Hyman --

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: Can we clear that up 22 without much ado? It doesn't sound like it would be

1 too difficult.

2 MR. HORGAN: Yes, your Honor, we can clear
3 that up. All right?

4 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes.

5 MR. HORGAN: There's several points.
6 First, I'm the attorney of record in 1189.

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes.

8 MR. HORGAN: And I have been that for some 9 time.

10 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes.

11 MR. HORGAN: I continue in that capacity.
12 The LLCs, these eight limited liability companies, 13 are New Jersey LLCs owned by Victoria Hyman, who is 14 present in the room. At the time these proceedings 15 began, you know, 10, 11 years ago, Mr. Hyman, who is 16 sitting -- the gentleman here on my right, was 17 managing those affairs. He is no longer doing that.

18 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right.

19 MR. HORGAN: And he does not speak for the 20 LLCs in these matters.

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right.

22 MR. HORGAN: We have disclaimed any

1 involvement with Mr. Riffin. We have said we're 2 against dual OFAs, and we have been entirely 3 consistent throughout.

4 If I might, your Honor, to clear this up, 5 because I think this is helpful, direct your 6 attention back to the May 22nd, 2015, decision in 7 this matter where the City of Jersey City and those 8 parties asked for similar kinds of information from 9 both the LLCs and from Conrail, and the Board said 10 no, you don't need to go beyond that. But I have 11 told Mr. Montange --

12 PRESIDING JUDGE: Would you stop that.

13 MR. MONTANGE: Sorry, your Honor.

14 MR. HORGAN: There's no question about it.
15 And I have told that to Mr. Montange in discovery, 16 as a matter of fact. We do have that. It's one of 17 the few things we did respond to, because we thought 18 we could resolve some of the problem.

19 That's the way it is. That's the way it 20 will continue to be.

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: Thank you.

22 Mr. Montange, what do you have to say to

1 that?

2 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, the disturbing
3 thing for us, the City, et al., in dealing with the 4 LLCs is a denial on the one hand that there's any 5 agreement between them and Mr. Riffin, but then 6 evidence of an agreement between them and Mr. Riffin 7 in which we're told that Mr. Hyman is -- appears to 8 be operating on behalf of the LLCs as their agent 9 and rep.

10 Mr. Horgan says, I guess, as I understand 11 it now, that he is not rep or agent of the LLCs?

12 MR. HORGAN: That is absolutely correct.

13 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's what he said.

14 MR. MONTANGE: Okay. So Mr. Hyman's
15 involvement now on the record is no longer on behalf 16 of the LLCs, and he does not represent them in 17 conversations with others, he's not a representative 18 of them in conversations of others, and that's a 19 condition which will not change unless you, 20 Mr. Horgan, advise the City, et al., otherwise in 21 writing? Will you agree to that?

22 PRESIDING JUDGE: It sounds fair.

1 MR. HORGAN: I will be happy to do that.

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right.

3 MR. HORGAN: My concern here, quite 4 frankly, is that the whole exercise with 5 Mr. Riffin's suit, which I assume now goes away, 6 too, by the way --

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: It does. Well, that's 8 not up to me, but it wouldn't appear that he has a 9 property right with no OFA.

10 MR. HORGAN: That's why I said I assume, 11 and I didn't mean to imply otherwise.

12 But my only concern here is that if 13 Mr. Hyman, who has been involved in this for 15 14 years, wants to talk to somebody about it, that's 15 not a representation. I'm making that clear. We're 16 all making that clear. The business of the LLCs --

17 PRESIDING JUDGE: He's a property owner, 18 isn't it?

19 MR. HORGAN: No.

20 PRESIDING JUDGE: He has no property
21 right, no property interest?

22 MR. HORGAN: Victoria Hyman is in the room

1 and is the sole member of the LLCs.

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: All right.

3 MR. HORGAN: That's my client. She's been 4 my client since 2009.

5 PRESIDING JUDGE: Okay.

6 MR. HORGAN: If there's a problem, I will 7 advise Mr. Montange. I would like the reciprocal 8 courtesy of getting a call, an inquiry to me if they 9 think there's a problem so I can deal with it.

10 PRESIDING JUDGE: I think that's 11 reasonable.

12 MR. MONTANGE: Your Honor, if we find that 13 Mr. Hyman is making representations to anyone within 14 the City government, the embankment coalition, 15 Rails-to-Trails, or any other party, we will notify 16 Mr. Horgan so he can disavow that, hopefully in 17 writing, on behalf of the LLC.

18 PRESIDING JUDGE: That sounds fine.

19 MR. HORGAN: We're done.

20 MR. HYMAN: Your Honor, I don't mean to be 21 an interloper, but would you --

22 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes, please.

1 MR. HYMAN: I told Mr. Horgan I wouldn't 2 take part in this, and part of the reason I am here 3 instead of being a member of the LLCs is that I have 4 a serious medical problem.

5 PRESIDING JUDGE: Yes, sir.

6 MR. HYMAN: I have to deal with it in 7 certain ways, and I don't know if your Honor knows 8 about it.

9 PRESIDING JUDGE: That's fine, sir. What 10 can I do for you?

11 MR. HYMAN: This is a minutia of what 12 Mr. Montange has done for the last 12, 15 years.
13 Mr. Montange and the City of Jersey City and the 14 embankment coalition, they are suffering from 15 buyer's remorse.

16 PRESIDING JUDGE: Sir, I read the entire 17 record. I know very well what the history of this 18 proceeding is.

19 MR. HYMAN: Okay.

20 PRESIDING JUDGE: Today, we are here for 21 pronounced reasons, and that was to deal with 22 Mr. Riffin's problems and then to deal with

1 Mr. Horgan's problems, which we have done to my 2 satisfaction.

3 Is there something I'm missing here?

4 MR. HYMAN: No. I'm satisfied with what 5 you're doing. I'm just trying to -- as long as 6 there's time here, I'm saving a lot of judicial 7 problems.

8 PRESIDING JUDGE: How?

9 MR. HYMAN: By giving you a timeline.

10 PRESIDING JUDGE: I don't need the 11 timeline, sir. As of December 30th, I will be out 12 of this case.

13 I've been charged with handling discovery 14 disputes on behalf -- by the Board on behalf of the 15 Board. And I believe I have now finished with that 16 unless someone has discovery that they file by 17 December 15th. After December 30th, if you have 18 anything else that you need to say on the record, 19 you say it to the Board.

20 MR. HYMAN: Okay.

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: This is back in the 22 Board's hands.

1 MR. HYMAN: Today, I can't say anything
2 anymore.

3 PRESIDING JUDGE: Sir, we're addressing 4 specific discovery issues today. This is not the 5 forum for addressing broader issues.

6 MR. HYMAN: Okay. I'm sorry.

7 PRESIDING JUDGE: Listen, you don't have 8 to be sorry. I'm just trying to explain it to you,
9 that I understand what your concerns are, and I 10 understand the history of the case. It's just that 11 my charge is very limited here, and that is to 12 handle discovery disputes for the Board, which I 13 have done here today.

14 MR. HYMAN: And you did a good job. Thank 15 you.

16 PRESIDING JUDGE: Thank you. Thank you,
17 sir, for your attendance and your participation. I 18 appreciate that.

19 MR. HYMAN: Thank you. I was just here to 20 help my wife through.

21 PRESIDING JUDGE: I understand. Thank
22 you, and good luck to you.

1 MR. HYMAN: Thank you. You, too.

2 PRESIDING JUDGE: Anything else? I hope
3 not to see any of you again. We are off the record.

4 (Whereupon, at 11:40 a.m., the oral 5 argument was concluded.)
