LaWada,

This addresses ODOT's concern. We do however request that ODOT receives a copy of the agreement signed by the City of Cincinnati where they have accepted the responsibility to secure, maintain and own all railroad bridges that are a part of the sales area. This will help us keep our files current and eliminate any misunderstandings in the future.

Thanks again for giving ODOT an opportunity to comment on this issue and for your follow-up.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Good morning Andy,

In reply to your letter dated April 4, 2016, the bridge agreements will be assigned to the City of Cincinnati ("City") and the City will assume the rights and obligations of those agreements. Solomon Jackson, who is the property agent for Norfolk Southern spoke with the City on April 6, 2016 and the City indicated they have no objections to the inclusion of the bridge agreements being assigned to them. The City will secure, maintain and own all railroad bridges that are a part of the sales area.

Please let me know if this email is sufficient in addressing your concerns.

Thank you,

LaWada Poarch
