Public Record

Dear Mr. Williams:

New York Central Lines, LLC ("NYC") and CSX Transportation, Inc. ("CSXT") filed for abandonment and discontinuance of service authority, respectively, in the above captioned matter on September 7, 2001. Such authority was granted and an offer of financial assistance was filed by Flex-N-Gate Corporation ("Flex-N-Gate") for the line between QSO 5.18 and QSO 11.09.

NYC/CSXT and Flex-N-Gate have been in agreement on the purchase price for a significant period of time. The parties have been negotiating a Purchase and Sale agreement, however, for months. Flex-N-Gate has requested at least four extensions of time on the date to request that the Board set terms and conditions. CSXT has not opposed these extensions. CSXT understands, however, that Flex-N-Gate intends to seek an additional extension of time. CSXT does oppose this request. CSXT has worked in good faith to finalize this transaction and has done nothing to hinder negotiations. The OFA process is premised on very strict timing deadlines. CSXT requests that the Board enforce the currently existing deadline of August 27, 2002, in accordance with the standard handling of OFAs. CSXT filed this exemption almost one year ago and would like to see this matter concluded.
