Docket No. AB-556 (Sub No. 2X)

RAILROAD VENTURES, INC.-ABANDONMENT EXEMPTION
BETWEEN YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO AND DARLINGTON, PA
IN MAHONING AND COLUMBIANA COUNTIES, OHIO
AND BEAVER COUNTY, PA

MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT

On January 3, 2005, CCPA/CCPR timely filed their Joint Petition for Reopening and Reconsideration in the above-captioned proceeding. Because UPS failed to deliver backup documents on December 31, 2004 that were timely forwarded from Russellville, Arkansas via UPS overnight air on December 30, 2004, these documents were not received until after 11:00 a.m. on January 3, 2005. This did not provide counsel with time to review the documents, to make the appropriate copies for filing with the Board, and to integrate them with other documentation in support of the Petition.

Because this will not delay the Board or otherwise have any prejudicial impact on any party of record, Petitioners request permission to associate the attached materials with the previously-filed Petition.

MEMO TO FILE

From: Tracy V. Drake

Date: January 29, 1997

Re: Y&S Railroad

On today's date I received a phone call from David Handel of Handel Investments which is managing the Y&S Railroad. He told me that his group intends to lobby the Beaver Township Trustees to push the Mahoning County Commissioners to withdraw their funding support for retention of the rail line.

Dave accused us of trying to intimidate potential buyers of Y&S real estate by publicly saying that the line will be preserved.

When questioned as to Rail Ventures Common Carrier requirements to see that the line is operated Dave said that Rail Ventures had no such obligation.

He told me that they will not let washout repairs to occur on the rail line that have been contracted for by the Ohio Rail Development Commission. He told me that they will wait as long as it takes to see that the shippers leave the rail line so that it can be abandoned.

He told me that they have ten times more money than we can muster for legal fees to prolong the fight in order to see that the shippers eventually go away from the rail line.

RE: ORDC Grant 2000-03 – Invoice 1A

Dear Susan Ms. Jenkins:

This letter follows up on our phone conversation of Thursday, November 8, 2001. The Port Authority sent you Invoice #1 for $66,531.95 on October 1, 2001. This was for a job being performed under Grant #2000-03. This Invoice #1 was for materials only.

We are now submitting with this letter a second invoice for $83,340.74. This Invoice #1A is for the amount paid to workers at prevailing wage to install the materials and do the work associated with the first invoice. Attached is the certified payroll.

If you have any questions, please give me a call.

Yours truly,

Tracy V. Drake
Executive Director

RE: STB Decision Dated December 13, 2004; Motion to Compel

Dear Dave:

This letter is to seek clarification of your letter of December 26, 2004. Is it your position that RVI has turned over to the Port Authority all the license, easement and other real property interests required to be so turned over by the STB? The STB's order of November 2001 specifies that RVI is entitled to the income from licenses, easements and similar arrangements listed in the Rossi appraisal. The Sixth Circuit subsequently found that RVI has no legal right to transfer any property interests associated with the line after the abandonment filing. Thus, RVI is not permitted to transfer its rights nor to change the terms of such instruments affecting the underlying real estate owned by the Port Authority. Has RVI or an affiliate transferred or altered any right in said licenses, easements or interests in the line? If so, such actions would be violations of the STB's order as affirmed by the Sixth Circuit and result in voiding such interests.

Secondly it has come to our attention that Mr. Kovalchick has filed a lien against the railroad. When we contacted him as to the nature of the lien he said he was owed monies by the former owners and has no intention of releasing the lien. Does RVI owe Mr. Kovalchick money? You had stated in an affidavit that the 1996 contract to scrap the line between RVI and Kovalchick was not executory but contingent upon abandonment authorization. Did Mr. Kovalchick pay RVI money for the expected scrap? Will RVI see that the lien is removed?

In regard to the $217,282.00, payment is subject to CCPR Bankruptcy proceedings in Arkansas and the recently filed Request for a Stay and Rehearing and any forthcoming petition for reopening and reconsideration and any subsequent appeal. The Port Authority stands ready to fulfill any obligation imposed upon final adjudication.

Yours truly,

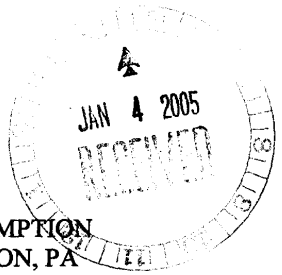

Tracy V. Drake

Docket No. AB-556 (Sub No. 2X)

RAILROAD VENTURES, INC.-ABANDONMENT EXEMPTION
BETWEEN YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO AND DARLINGTON, PA
IN MAHONING AND COLUMBIANA COUNTIES, OHIO
AND BEAVER COUNTY, PA

VERIFIED STATEMENT OF TIMOTHY K. ROBBINS

1. My name is Timothy K. Robbins. Between January 2001 and August 2002, when CCPR was performing repair work in order to make the line of railroad between Youngstown, Ohio and Darlington, Pennsylvania operational, I was the Vice President of the Central Columbiana & Pennsylvania Railway, Inc. ("CCPR"). My business address was 148 E Park Avenue, Columbiana, Ohio 44408. I am duly authorized to present this further Verified Statement in support of the Joint Motion Seeking Final Closure of Escrow Account. filed on behalf of CCPR and the Columbiana County Port Authority ("CCPA") in the above-captioned proceeding.

2. I have reviewed the Board's December 13, 2004 Decision ("December 2004 Decision"). When I initially submitted my original Verified Statement and supporting evidence in January 2003 in support of CCPA/CCPR's "Joint Motion Seeking Final Closure of Escrow Account," I relied on Ordering Paragraph s 6 and 8 in its November 9, 2001 decision in this case. ("November 2001 Decision"). Paragraph 6 states that "CCPA may withdraw from the escrow account such funds as are necessary to pay for repairs of this rail line at road crossings and the restoration of signaling equipment that occurred as a result of RVI's failure to keep the line of railroad operational, and shall keep account of all funds spent." Paragraph 8 states that "CCPA shall be held harmless for any funds spent from the escrow account for repairs to its line that were the result of RVI's failure to keep the line operational during its ownership of the line, except for any fraudulent expenditures." Based on those two paragraphs, and the absence of any other guidelines regarding what would be necessary to file to comply with the "keep account" provision, it was not deemed necessary to submit invoices, time sheets and other backup materials with the initial submission. Instead, the decision was made to provide information consistent with CCPR's own general ledger accounts that would reflect compliance with the requirement that CCPA keep account of all funds spent.

3. In order to respond to certain of the criticisms that have been voiced by the Board in its December 2004 Decision, copies of CCPR's computerized General Ledger Detail Report and backup documents are attached hereto. In addition, CCPR's "Payroll Check History Report" and backup are also being submitted for the period 1/01/01 through 12/31/01 in order to demonstrate the overhead costs associated with the repairs that were made to the line.

4. It is my understanding that CCPA has submitted further documentation regarding $149,872.70 of invoices for out of pocket expenses that were paid by ORDC in 2001. At that time, it was impossible to withdraw funds from the escrow account due solely to RVI's refusal to cooperate and its deliberate interference with the orderly workings of the escrow arrangement. Had it not been for RVI's conduct, the sums paid by ORDC would have been paid out of the escrow to the extent that funds were available. Most importantly, had it not been for RVI's conduct, it would not have been necessary to withdraw any funds from the escrow to cover any of the $119,806 of overhead expenses.

5. Moreover, because the Board has recognized that overhead expenses are an essential component of the cost of repairs, the only way that fraud could be demonstrated would be if CCPA/CCPR had charged both ORDC and the escrow for the cost of overhead expenses. This was not done.

6. The Board has also criticized the lack of time sheets for CCPR's officers and those of its corporate affiliates. In the first place, because management employees, unlike the road crews who actually laid the track, are not paid on an hourly basis, they do not ordinarily keep track of their time on that basis. As a result, it was necessary to allocate time spent on the repair projects. Second, I relied on my personal recollection as well as CCPR's books and records that reflected the expenses associated with the repair projects that were undertaken to address damage caused by RVI's neglect and deliberate destruction of portions of the line. Third, to support and corroborate my allocations, CCPR is filing supporting Verified Statements of William K. Robbins, Jr. and Michael A. Robbins.

7. Because Daniel Robbins is currently employed by Union Pacific Railroad and was unavailable to provide a Verified Statement, I have further reviewed the company's accounts, as well as spoken with him and other officers, to confirm my prior allocation of his time to the CCPR project. Between January 2001 and November of that year, Daniel was heavily involved with CCPR and the effort to repair the line and get it operational. In the first place, he was in Ohio on every occasion that Michael Robbins was there. This means that he was physically there at least 42. In addition he spent at least 3 or 4 working days per month in Ohio during months that Michael did not come for a total of approximately 54 days. During those visits he shared an apartment with me in order to reduce overhead costs. Also, a review of his phone records show that during this time frame, he averaged at least 450 minutes per month on the phone with companies located in Ohio. These calls were related to the project. In addition to the time spent in Ohio, Daniel played a major role in defining repair specifications that were used in dealing with our outside contractors and with out own crews.

8. I have previously allocated 90% of my time to the repairs. During 2001, practically all that was done related to clearing the track, making repairs and getting the line operational. The only time that I was not in Ohio during the first 11 months of 2001, I would have been in Arkansas attending meetings of the Board of Directors. Even then, I was reporting about the progress that was being made with repairs to the line. As a result, the overhead figure of $22,957, which reflects salary and fringe benefits, for my time is fully justified.

9. In addition, I am attaching time sheets of CCPR's outside counsel which demonstrate that $33,715.31 of legal expenses were incurred that were attributed solely to disputes over the escrow account. Had RVI cooperated with CCPA/CCPR, instead of deliberately trying to sabotage the escrow account, CCPR would not have incurred such expenses. Such expenses, which were not previously included, should be applied to overhead expenses.

10. I must also disagree that CCPR made any attempt to mislead the Board with regard to the two crossings in Pennsylvania. In the first place, we were at all times trying to cut costs. If we had been able to match or underbid Ohio Track, we would have done so. It is unrealistic to assume that we would have any incentive to overbid Ohio Track when our own crews needed work. Second, due to the press of time, CCPR, with CCPA's consent, used telephonic bid solicitations on a number of occasions. This was done solely because the press of time and the need to complete certain repairs did not provide the luxury of written bids. In this respect, by the time that we were ready to repair the crossings in Pennsylvania, time was running out on our ability to withdraw funds from the escrow account. Fourth, I am aware that Steve Hames personally inspected the crossings before he passed on his bid to me, which I would have shared with Bud Gane. That he did not get around to sending a paper copy until a few days later would not reflect any intent to deceive or defraud anyone. At worst, the later written bid can only be viewed as an attempt to confirm the previous oral bid.

11. I must also disagree with the Board's treatment of the clearing and drainage work at the NS overpass. The fact that the rail line is built in a depression had little or nothing to do with the repairs that were made. CCPR's repairs addressed the excessive runoff that are solely attributed to RVI's decision to allow the City and the adjoining industry to take actions that intensified the drainage problem. Prior to RVI allowing the drainage system to be modified, drainage in that area was likely an ongoing problem. However, the problem was made much worse when RVI allowed a neighboring industry, which is located to the west of the track, to move an intermittent stream and a city water overflow runoff ditch from their property and direct the water flow onto the railroad. Had it not been for RVI's action in allowing this modification, the drainage problem would not have been more than an occasional nuisance. As a result, RVI's actions compelled CCPR to take further remedial action.

FURTHER SAYETH THE AFFIANT NOT.

I, Timothy K. Robbins, declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on January 3, 2005.

CONTRACT
e of Columbiana, Ohio

Name _____
Address: 7756
Account No: [redacted]

due and payable on or before the 15th day after the date of billing, and further if said bill is not paid on or by the 15th day following the billing a ten percent (10%) penalty shall be added; if the bill is not paid within fifteen (15) days after that date, the Director of Public Service shall disconnect wires leading to and remove meters and transformers from the premises, and no current or water shall be furnished to any consumer until the entire amount due the Village for electric current, water and sewer is fully paid, plus a reconnect charge. The Village shall furnish and have installed electric and/or water meters to be paid by the applicant at fair market price together with all charges for installing same prior to water and/or electric being turned on. All inside wiring, plumbing and furnishing of fixtures must be done at the expense of the consumer

2. The Village shall not be held liable for damages to property from causes beyond its control nor liable for damages from any causes whatsoever to produce or furnish electric current or water to the consumer at the usual time or place, or in the usual manner nor failure from any cause to furnish current or water regularly.

3. It is further agreed that in the event a meter stops or is broken, the billing invoice shall be based on the last bill rendered, and if said billing shall be deemed unjust, the Village shall adjust the billing by estimates of similar service.

4. The Village shall have the right at all times to enter any residence or place of business in order to read, install or remove its meters. Consumer agrees to pay a minimum rate within the corporate limits of the Village, and outside said limits, whether any current and/or water has been used during the month or not. Provided, the service may be discontinued by the customer giving written notice to the Director of Public Service, and further if said service is resumed, an extra charge will be made and consumer shall make application the same as the beginning.

5. Application may not be made by anyone other than the actual consumer, or the property owner of the property for which the current and/or water is to be supplied.

6. If the applicant for current and/or water and sewer be not the owner of the premises for which current is requested to be supplied, such owner shall be required to guarantee the payment for current and/or water consumed therein by such occupant; or in lieu thereof, such consumer may deposit with the Director of Public Service the sum required for a residence, or a business establishment, as security for the payment of current and/or water furnished to such consumer

7. The undersigned property owner requests the Village of Columbiana Utility Department to supply water and electric service upon the herein designated premises. Applicant agrees to pay for services as bills are rendered therefore at current rates, and further agrees to all the terms, rules and regulations governing such services on file with the Village. The service rendered herein shall be continuous thereafter until terminated by either party upon ten (10) days notice in writing to the other. The co-signer of this application hereby obligates himself to see to the prompt payment of all liabilities of the herein named applicant, to the Village of Columbiana Utility Department arising from and growing out of this contract, and should said applicant be in default for a period of thirty (30) days, then the undersigned, shall upon demand made upon him by the Village of Columbiana Utility Department, immediately pay such indebtedness and become liable for the same.

8. I hereby make application for and agree to pay for electric and/or water and sewer service according to the above agreement, and further agree that all rules and regulations and ordinances of the Village passed or hereafter to be passed or made, shall constitute a part of this Agreement the same as if rewritten herein.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR DIALING PATTERN AND NEW 878 AREA CODE OVERLAY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Effective July 12, 2001, all customers with a 412 or 724 area code will be required to dial 10 digits for all local calls. You will continue to dial 1+10 digits for all long distance calls.
An area code overlay allows everyone to keep their existing area codes and telephone numbers. The introduction of local 10-digit dialing launches the telecommunication industry's 878 overlay code plan and is designed to manage Pennsylvania's expanding economy and demand for telecommunications services while minimizing inconvenience.
Although your dialing pattern will change, your cellular pricing plan will remain the same. No additional costs will be incurred when dialing 10 digits for locals calls. We recommend that you start using 10-digit dialing to all calls you make to the 412 and 724 area codes. For further information please contact our Customer Service Department at 1-800-934-3996.

Cellular One now has all NEW local and regional calling plans that fit the way you talk. Local Digital calling plans start as low as $19.99 per month with 100 anytime minutes included each month. SURFACE TRANSPORTATION BOARD

RAILROAD VENTURES, INC.-ABANDONMENT EXEMPTION
BETWEEN YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO AND DARLINGTON, PA
IN MAHONING AND COLUMBIANA COUNTIES, OHIO
AND BEAVER COUNTY, PA

VERIFIED STATEMENT OF LOU JANNAZO

1. My name is Lou Jannazo. I am employed by the Ohio Rail Development Commission ("ORDC") as its Chief of Planning. My business address is 50 West Board Street, Suite 1510, Columbus, Ohio 43215. I am personally knowledgeable about the matters about which I am offering testimony. I am duly authorized to present this Affidavit.

2. On February 8, 2001, only two weeks after the Columbiana County Port Authority ("CCPA") acquired ownership of the line of railroad that runs between Darlington, Pennsylvania and Youngstown, Ohio, I attended a meeting at ORDC's headquarters. This meeting involved representatives of CCPR, ORDC and CCPA. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing what had already been done, as well as the steps that would have to be taken, to ensure the prompt resumption of rail service over the line. Several topics were discussed, including the status of repairs, the projected resumption of rail service, and safety matters. Other related topics concerned the status of discussions with the interchange carriers and the companies which own the right-of-way over which CCPR would operate.

3. CCPA's suggestion concerning a procedure to be followed in order to seek reimbursement from the escrow account was another topic of discussion. Because no formal methodology was established by the Surface Transportation Board to govern reimbursement of restoration costs from the escrow, it was necessary for the parties to devise a workable procedure that would comply with the Board's intent. CCPA proposed a multi-step review process based upon the Board's Decisions and with RVI's request that ORDC provide oversight responsibility.

4. I want to emphasize that ORDC did not seek to be placed in the position of providing oversight. ORDC agreed to assume the oversight responsibility only after RVI, in November 2000, requested the Board to impose the requirement that the escrow funds would be "disbursed for the purposes directed by the Board's order subject to the oversight and written consent of the Ohio Rail Development Commission." In assuming that responsibility, ORDC understood that it, not CCPA or RVI, would be responsible for determining that the $375,000 would be appropriately spent.

5. In order to implement the escrow process, it was agreed that ORDC's counsel would work with Jim Davis, who was the escrow agent approved by the Board, to reach an agreement concerning how funds would be disbursed from the escrow account once specific projects had been approved. Unfortunately, this proved to be unworkable due to RVI's constant interference.

6. Because it was impossible to draw down funds from the escrow account to pay for repairs that should have been paid out of the escrow account, ORDC instead funded several of those repairs. During the period between January 24, 2001 and November 9, 2001, ORDC spent $177,210.38 on various crossing surface repairs and signal upgrades on the CCPA line. In addition, ORDC spent $66,531.95 on various track repairs during this period. On November 28, 2001, ORDC spen $83,340.74 to pay for additional track repairs for which CCPA invoiced ORDC before November 9, 2001.

7. The Board should also note that in May 2001, RVI filed a suit in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, Civil Action No. 4:01CV01164, against ORDC, ORDC's Executive Director, the individual ORDC Commissioners, CCPA, its Executive Director and CCPR. The suit sought to enjoin the parties from using the escrow fund to pay for certain repairs. This suit was dismissed by Amended Memorandum Opinion and Order, dated August 14, 2001. See Attachment A.

FURTHER SAYETH THE AFFIANT NOT.

I, Lou Jannazo, Chief of Planning, Ohio Rail Development Commission, declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on January 3, 2005.

	)	JUDGE PETER C. ECONOMUS
v.	)
COLUMBIANA COUNTY PORT AUTHORITY, et al.,	)	AMENDED MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER
DEFENDANTS.	)

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(a), this Court, on its own initiative, AMENDS the Memorandum Opinion and Order and the Amended Order entered on August 10, 2001 (Dkt. ## 46 and 47). The August 10, 2001 Memorandum Opinion and Order and Amended Order are hereby SUPERCEDED in their entirety by this Amended Memorandum Opinion and Order, filed on this 13th day of August, 2001.

This matter is before the Court upon the Motions of the Defendants, Columbiana County Port Authority ("CCPA"), the Ohio Rail Development Commission ("ORDC") and its individual members, and the Columbiana & Pennsylvania Railroad Company and certain of its employees individually named in this action, and the Motions of the Intervenor, Surface Transportation Board ("STB"), to dismiss the Plaintiff's Amended Complaint[1] for, inter alia, lack of subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 12(b)(1) (Dkt.#13, #27, #33; #7 & #15). The Defendants have additionally moved to dismiss this action pursuant to FED. R.CIV. P. 12(b)(6), or alternatively, for judgment on the pleadings under FED. R. CIV. P. 12(c).

In an Order dated July 16, 2001, the Court provided the parties with an opportunity to submit additional evidence in the event that the Court determined that the Defendants' motions to dismiss pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 12(b)(6), or alternatively, for judgment on the pleadings pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 12(c), should be converted to motions for summary judgment (Dkt.#43). On July 26, 2001, RVI filed a "Response . . . to the July 16, 2001 Order of the Court Seeking Additional Evidence." (Dkt.#44.) RVI requested that the Court deny all pending motions and to provide the parties with an opportunity to conduct formal discovery. As set forth below, this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction to hear this matter and need not convert the respective motions to dismiss to motions for summary judgment.

Consequently, the respective Motions of the Defendants and the Intervenor to dismiss this action for lack of subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to Fed. R. 12(b)(1) (Dkt.#13, #27, #33; #7 & #15) are GRANTED.

[1]RVI initially filed its Complaint on May 11, 2001. After the STB filed a motion to dismiss, RVI filed its Amended Complaint, which differs from the original complaint in wording, but which seeks this Court's intervention in enforcing the STB's respective orders despite the pendency of an appeal before the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit in Railroad Ventures, Inc. v. Surface Transportation Board, No. 00-3261, filed March 1, 2000) and consolidated cases filed March 3, March 7, October 19, October 27, and November 16, 2000, and January 29, 2001.

BACKGROUND

A. Facts

This action involves the sale of a line of railroad located in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania by RVI to the CCPA pursuant to a final decision of the STB issued on October 4, 2000, in STB Docket No. AB-556 (Sub-No.2X), Railroad Ventures, Inc. – Abandonment Exemption – Between Youngstown, Ohio, and Darlington, PA, in Mahoning and Columbiana Counties, OH, and Beaver County, PA ("October Decision," attached as Ex.1 to Defs.' Mot. to Dismiss). In the October Decision, the STB ordered RVI to sell the rail line to the CCPA pursuant to 49 U.S.C. §10904.[2]

Additionally, in the October Decision the STB ruled on the requests of the CCPA, and the ORDC, to establish from the proceeds of the sale an escrow account in the amount of $375,000 to pay for the repair of damage that occurred to the rail line during RVI's ownership. (October Decision at *11.) The STB noted that RVI had improperly allowed parts of the line to be destroyed. (Id.) Consequently, in ordering the escrow provision, the STB assigned the responsibility to restore the rail line to the seller, RVI, rather than the purchaser, the CCPA.

[2]Prior to the forced sale to the CCPA, RVI had asked the Board for authority to abandon the rail line. In September 1999, the Board granted RVI's request. However, CCPA timely invoked its right under 49 U.S.C. §10904 to purchase the line for continued rail service. Accordingly, the Board stayed the abandonment authorization pending completion of the offer of financial assistance ("OFA") process. Because the CCPA and RVI could not reach an agreement, the CCPA asked the Board to set the terms for the sale of the line, which the agency did in a January 2000, decision.

Issues arose about the extent of rail property that the Board ordered sold. As a consequence, in the October Decision, the Board clarified that RVI must sell all of its interest in the rail line (except for specified easements and agreements that predated its application to abandon the line), and the agency revised the purchase price and other terms of sale. One of the revised terms required the parties to establish the escrow fund described infra.

RVI and the CCPA apparently disagreed in their respective interpretations of the October Decision concerning, among other things, the escrow provision. RVI submitted a request for clarification of the October Decision, and the STB issued a decision in December 2000 ("December Decision," Attachment A). In the December Decision, the STB explained that in its October Decision it "took the extraordinary step of requiring [RVI] to pay for restoring the track and signals because of RVI's 'blatant disregard of its common carrier obligation' when, among other actions, it authorized state road crews to pave over the line when it was still an active rail line." (Attachment A at 4.)

The rail line was sold to the CCPA on January 24, 2001. Since that time, the CCPA has arranged for repairs to be made so that freight can be transported on the line. To facilitate the escrow provision, RVI and the CCPA agreed that the funds would be disbursed subject to the oversight and written consent of the ORDC. (Complaint ¶7.)

The CCPA and RVI complied with this order by placing $375,000 from the purchase price in an escrow account maintained by an independent escrow agent. In a follow-up decision, the Board noted that RVI and the CCPA had agreed to "an escrow arrangement whereby disbursements would be subject to the oversight and written consent of the Ohio Rail Development Commission." December Decision, Attachment A at 2-3. RVI acknowledges that the ORDC has fulfilled that responsibility. (Complaint ¶7.)

In recent months, the costs of specific repair projects have been submitted to the ORDC for review. RVI asserted that the escrow funds should not be used to pay for repairs in two particular locations because it was not responsible for the damage in those places. (Complaint ¶31.)

This matter is presently before the Court because RVI and the CCPA disagree in their respective interpretations of both the October and December Decisions concerning the STB's order that the escrow funds be used to pay for the restoration of the track and signals at two locations on the line. RVI has brought this action as a request for enforcement of the October Decision. However, the October and December Decisions, in addition to a series of other decisions in the same administrative case, are under judicial review before the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

B. Abandonment and Forced Sale of Rail Lines

Under the Interstate Commerce Act ("Act"), as amended,[3] private parties may not buy, sell, open or shut down interstate rail lines at will. Rather, rail lines that are part of the interstate rail network may be bought, sold, or abandoned only with the approval of the STB. See 49 U.S.C. §§10901-10903, 11323. The STB's exclusive jurisdiction over a rail line does not end until a rail carrier has obtained unconditional authority to abandon the line and has exercised that authority. See Hayfield N. R. R. v. Chicago & N.W. Transp. Co., 467 U.S. 622 (1984).

The Act presumes that continued rail service is in the public interest. Thus, when the STB decides to authorize an abandonment, the offer of financial assistance, OFA, provisions of the Act guarantee any financially responsible person the right to acquire the rail line to provide continued rail service. See 49 U.S.C. §10904. Upon a party's request, the STB must, within 30 days, set the purchase price, which may not be below the fair market value of the property, and other terms of the sale. See 49 U.S.C. §10904(e), (f). The terms set by the STB are binding upon both parties, except that the buyer has ten days to withdraw its offer. See 49 U.S.C. §10904(f)(2). Accordingly, an owner, as in the case sub judice, may be forced to sell a rail line involuntarily under the OFA provisions of the statute. See Railway Labor Executives' Ass'n v. Staten Island R.R., 792 F.2d 7, 10 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 479 U.S. 1054 (1987).

[3]The Act has been amended over the years, most recently in the Interstate Commerce Commission Termination Act of 1995, Pub. L. No. 104-88, 109 Stat. 803, which created the STB to assume several of the functions of the former Interstate Commerce Commission, including those related to the regulation of railroads.

ANALYSIS

Under 28 U.S.C. §2342, only the court of appeals has jurisdiction to "enjoin, set aside, suspend (in whole or in part), or to determine the validity of * * * (5) all rules, regulations, or final orders of the Surface Transportation Board made reviewable by section 2321 of this title[.]" In turn, 28 U.S.C. §2321 provides:

> (a) Except as otherwise provided by an Act of Congress, a proceeding to enjoin or suspend, in whole or in part, a rule, regulation, or order of the Surface Transportation Board shall be brought in the court of appeals as provided by and in the manner prescribed in chapter 158 of this title [encompassing 28 U.S.C. §§2341-2351].

This grant of jurisdiction in the court of appeals is exclusive and encompasses "any suit seeking relief that might affect" the appeals court's statutory power of review. La Voz Radio de la Communidad v. FCC, 223 F.3d 313, 318 (6th Cir. 2000), quoting Telecommunications Research & Action Center v. FCC, 750 F.2d 70, 75 (D.C. Cir. 1984) ("TRAC").

The Court agrees with the STB's position that the Amended Complaint's request for declaratory and injunctive relief with respect to the escrow provision of the October Decision is no more than a collateral attack on the STB's October and December Decisions. Furthermore, as RVI has challenged, among other things, the validity of the escrow provisions of the October and December Decisions in an appeal currently pending before the Sixth Circuit, any action taken by this Court concerning the decisions could infringe upon the appeals court's review. Accordingly, this Court is without subject matter jurisdiction to consider the claims set forth in the Plaintiff's Amended Complaint.

CONCLUSION

As the Court has concluded that it does not have subject matter jurisdiction over the claims asserted by the Plaintiff, the respective Motions to Dismiss of the Defendants and the Intervenor (Dkt.#13, #27, #33; #7 & #15) are GRANTED, and this action is hereby DISMISSED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
