Josh,

Thanks for that. The link from the project website appears to be working in Chrome now.

I was able to access and download it earlier through my Microsoft edge browser...my concern was that others using chrome might not be able to get to it.

Thanks,

Darrell

Darrell,

I hope you're doing well. Instructions for accessing the Draft EIS are included in the Dear Reader Letter. I've also confirmed that the project website (www.untabasinrailwayeis.com) is working correctly in Chrome.

In case you are still having trouble accessing the document, you can also find it from any of the links below.

The link in your email only goes to the Dear Reader Letter, with no link to the actual Draft EIS.

In addition, the link to view the Draft EIS on the Board-sponsored project website does not work when using the Google Chrome browser.

Today, the Surface Transportation Board (the Board) issued the Draft Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) for the proposed Uinta Basin Railway for your review and comment.

Click here to view the Draft EIS. Comments can be submitted during the 45-day public comment period, including at six online public meetings to be held during the comment period.

Please visit the Board-sponsored project website at www.uintabasinrailwayeis.com for project-related updates, documents, instructions on how to submit comments electronically, by mail, or at an online public meeting, and to register for an upcoming online public meeting.

Thank you for your continued participation in the Board's environmental review process for this project.
