Why should my tax dollars pay for ^{grade improvement} ~~no benefit~~ to me but noisy trains?

Rush-Copley Hospital + Trauma center is west of the tracks. At least 1 ambulance a day crosses the tracks to get someone to the hospital. How will that problem be addressed?

POLICE REPORT

Incidents reported by the Aurora Police Department

Thursday, Jan. 3

1 Three hurt: Three people were injured in a two-car crash at 7:27 a.m. Thursday near Farnsworth Avenue and Mountain Street, Aurora police said. The driver, Israel Sanchez-Huerta, 26, of the 2400 block of Westleigh Court, Aurora, was taken to Provena Mercy Medical Center in Aurora after his car rolled over. No information was available on his condition. Sanchez-Huerta was charged with driving too fast for conditions and no insurance, police said. The other driver, Juan Pablo Alvarado, 18, of the 700 block of Sard Avenue, Aurora, was treated and released from Mercy. Alvarado was charged with no valid license, police said. His passenger, Juan Carlos Alvarado, 17, of the 700 block of Lebanon Street, Aurora, was treated and released from Rush-Copley Medical Center in Aurora.

Wednesday, Jan. 2

2 Signal knocked down: Jerome Hlava, 60, of the 200 block of Tupelo Drive, Naperville, was treated and released from Rush-Copley Medical Center after his car hit, and knocked down, a traffic signal at McCoy Drive and Entrance No. 2 to the Westfield Fox Valley mall at 3:08 p.m. on Jan. 2, Aurora police said. Hlava was charged with disobeying a traffic signal, police said.

3 Two-car crash: Joseph Salerno, 29, of Lisle, was treated and released from Rush-Copley Medical Center after a two-car crash 6:12 p.m. Jan. 2 near New York Street and Commons Drive, Aurora police said. Salerno was charged with disobeying a traffic control device, police said. The other driver was not injured or ticketed, police said.

4 Tools taken: About $2,100 worth of tools were stolen from a home in the 4100 block of McCoy Drive between 2 p.m. Dec. 28 and 6:40 a.m. Jan. 2, Aurora police said.

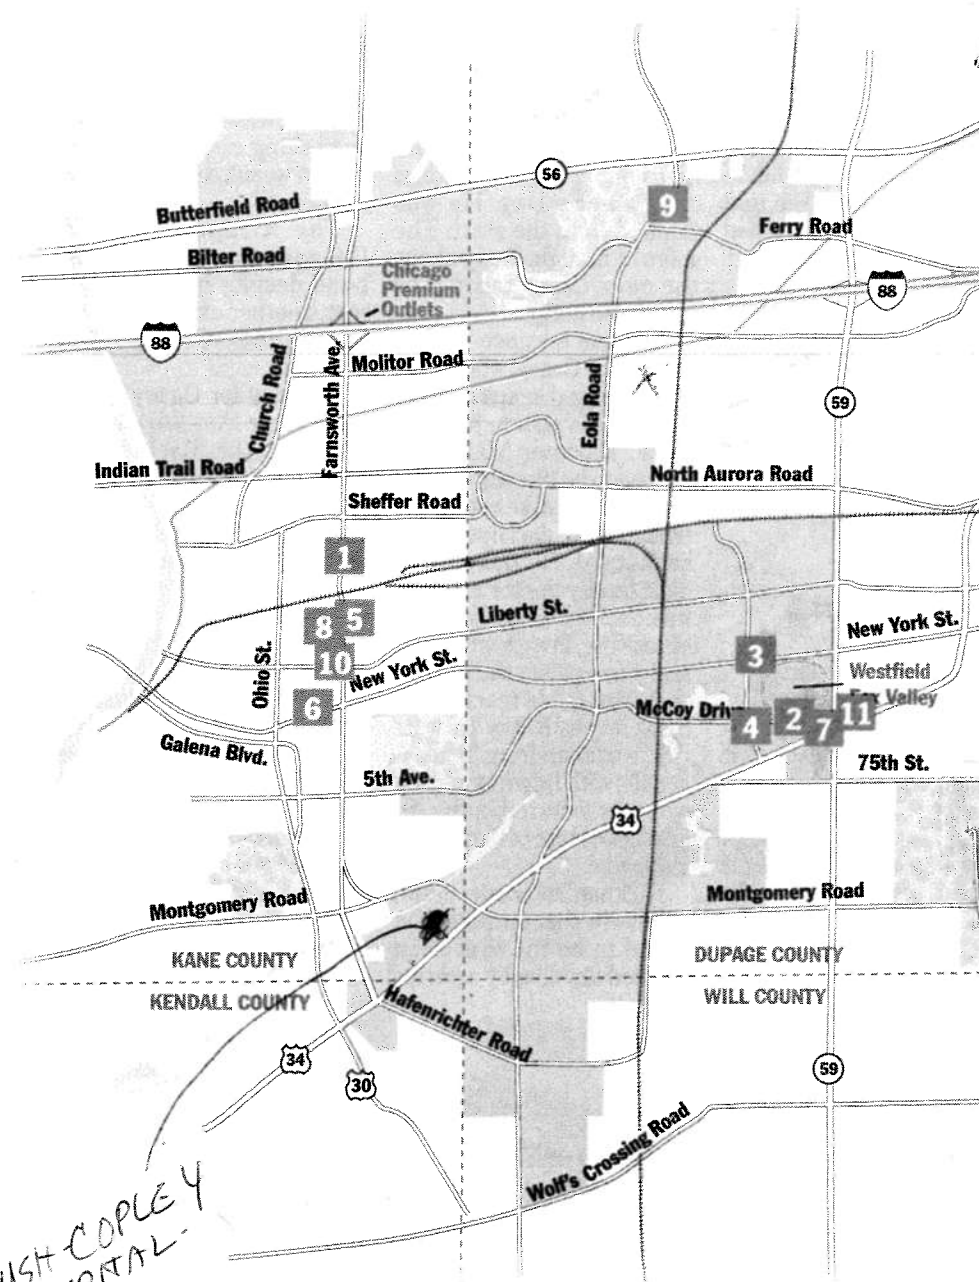

5 Computer stolen from school: A laptop computer, worth $1,000, was stolen from Cowherd Middle School, 441 N. Farnsworth Ave., between Dec. 27 and Jan. 2, Aurora police said.

Tuesday, Jan. 1

6 Shots fired: About $100 damage was done when someone fired shots at a house and car in the 1200 block of East New York Street at 1:40 a.m. Jan. 1, Aurora police said.

Monday, Dec. 31

7 Man injured: Ronald P. Murray, 44, of Tifton, Ga., was taken to Rush-Copley Hospital after his car collided with another vehicle on Route 34 just west of Route 59 at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 31, police said. The driver of the other vehicle was accused of failure to reduce speed, police said.

8 Felony charges: Francisco Rosario, 28, of the 1400 block of Superior Street, Aurora, was charged with felonies of aggravated robbery and robbery after he took $800 from the register of a business in the 400 block of North Farnsworth Avenue, Aurora, at 9 p.m. Dec. 31, the Kane County state's attorney's office said. Rosario reached over the counter while pointing a lighter shaped like a gun at the cashier, prosecutors said. Officers found Rosario minutes later by following his footprints in the snow, prosecutors said.

9 Elf-related damage: About $20,000 damage was done when someone spray painted several trucks in the 2700 block of North Eola Road between midnight Dec. 28 and 4 a.m. Dec. 31, Aurora police said. One of the trucks had "honk if you hate elves!" painted on the side, police said.
