Group/Affiliation: Lake Zurich Against CN Rail Congestion

Message: It appears the only thing of importance to the Canadian National Railroad in this acquisition is the enhancement of their profits. I think it only fair that the American citizens whose daily lives will be drastically and negatively affected by the actions of this Railroad be allowed to have a correspondingly drastic affect on the Railroad's profits. As a minimum, the infrastructure costs to mitigate the negative affect this acquisition will have on the lives of so many American citizens should be borne 100% by the railroad and their stockholders.

Let the Canadian National Railroad pay every penny of the cost to construct and maintain overpasses and viaducts at every roadway crossing the route of the E. J. and E. Let them pay for sound barriers along their tracks in every town they pass through. These improvements should be entirely in place before any new traffic is allowed on the route.

If CN RR wants to be a bad neighbor, let them pay
