I strongly support CN Railway's purchase of the EJ&E Railway tracks. This would reduce the number of trains that are constantly cutting Elmwood Park in half and disrupting the flow of traffic in this very busy suburb. Rerouting some of the trains around Chicago would help ease rail congestion in and close to Chicago. I am often waiting in excess of 10 minutes while a freight train passes through my town. All suburbs need to share this burden in order to keep the economy healthy. Right now, most trains disrupt only the suburbs close to Chicago. Since all suburbs benefit from the trains, all suburbs need to share in some of the disruptions. Elmwood Park desperately needs relief. Please allow CN to purchase EJ&E in order to reroute some of their trains around the core. It is what is best for the entire region.
