Josh -

In connection with the planned (but not yet filed) abandonment proceeding for one mile of rail line in Pamplin, Prince Edward County, VA, which will shortly be initiated for purposes of extending the High Bridge Trail State Park (itself a rail trail), I asked NS how old the track and track material on the one mile are, as we had discussed yesterday.

The answer to that question is reflected in the email below.

Rob,

According to our rail records, the rail on the Pamplin abandonment segment was laid in 1985.
