I specifically asked whether a certificate of service was needed and was told it was not. Plus, my system would not allow me to send it via email. So I waited until I saw it on line for the first time to call it to your attention.

I saw the filing today. I was surprised to not see a certificate of service, or to be provided with a copy yesterday when the filing was made.

Eric, I filed a petition with the STB late yesterday that has finally been posted. Under the new webpage, look for "recent filings" and click. Regards, Richard
