History: This message has been replied to.

Hi Cathy,

Our State Archaeologist, Dave McMahan and I have both reviewed the Curation Policy and have a few minor comments. I am at home today, but can get you a brief summary of our comments when I get back to the office tomorrow. Did you note anything of concern in the policy? We were notified that this policy was being prepared and that a draft would be provided for our review, which I assume is what is intended with this submittal, even though it is not labeled as draft.

Best regards,
Shina

Hi Shina,

Do you intend to submit any comments regarding the Project Curation Policy? Also, were you consulted during the preparation of the policy? I note that the PA stipulates that a "draft policy" shall be developed in "consultation with the STB and SHPO." I don't believe we were ever consulted about the policy. The version I received is also not labeled as a draft.

Hi Cathy,

Thanks for the note and no apologies necessary. I also had a 10am meeting, so would've had to jump off also. I then had a 1pm meeting immediately following, so I am just returning to the office now. We appreciate the efforts made by both you and Vicki this morning to convey our shared concerns about the documentation.

I hope you also have a great weekend and I imagine we'll be in touch soon. At some point, I believe that we (collectively) should also discuss the Segment 6 area that the ARRC proposes to add to the APE (but does not believe warrants additional inventory) as well as the Curation Policy, which has also been submitted for formal review by SHPO and STB.

Best regards,
Shina

Hi Shina,

Sorry for having to leave the call so abruptly, but I had another meeting and also felt that the railroad wasn't getting what I was saying. Thanks, however, for your help and support on the call. If needed, I will just keep reiterating what I wrote in my comments and what Vicki and I said on the call.

Have a great weekend.

All,

We are on the call, but nobody else appears to be present. Did we call the wrong number?

Shina

Hello,

Please use the attached revised comments. I have made a few minor additions/changes to the comments I sent out yesterday. Please consider these comments final. I have also attached the edited pages again for your convenience.

Thank you.
