① Catheter

My neighbor has three draft horses which he loves. He works in Chicago with all the stress of commuting and returns to the place, quiet, and serenity of the country.

He loves love the freedom and the peace as well.

If the team comes, the peace will be destroyed and the horses will be frightened each time the catheter comes. The first time they hear it could cause them to even break through the fencing to escape the doctor.

Yesterday morning was a "muddy mess" at sunrise. The view is across the street (County Line Road) from my house.

Each day that gives a different view and sunset to enjoy. None are alike. Being here in the country allows me to be close to God as His creation surrounds me. God said, "Be still and know that I am God!"

If the train comes next to me that "thru" will no longer quit. The beauty will be close with the spirit of train (singing) through the

There is another picture of the sun (as it continued to prepare the day with God's glory).

④ Collective

This is yesterday about 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The sun has disappeared the "mist" of the sunrise and now the day was filled with its beauty.

Those in the city do not see the changes of God's glory. In the country we feel His presence everywhere.

Please allow me to have this joy and along the railroad to request.

We are farmers. We work the land.
We love the land. We know our lives and
