My husband and I came to Barrington in 1959. We were a young family with 1 child and another born three weeks after we moved here. We have lived in the village of Barrington since that time (same street 2 different homes). We raised 3 children here. We love this town!!

Now we even have grandchildren here attending the same schools that their dad attended.

If CN railroad takes over the EJ&E RR I worry about young children walking to school and the dangers that go with mile-long freight trains.

Another worry I have - now that we are in our 70s - is what happens if we need the paramedics or fire department? What if a long freight train is blocking Rte 14 and Hough Street? Could paramedics get to our home could they get us to Good Shepherd Hospital ~~in~~ in a hurry??

This has always been a quiet lovely village where people come to raise their families. I hope it can remain that quiet, lovely village for future generations.
