Dear Board

May 18th

JUNE 15

The proposed rail line will run close to the schools. It is difficult to keep students on task in "normal" situations. The blaring of train whistles and noise on the tracks the students will have more difficulty keeping focus. Special education are more likely to get out of line the more noise. The disruption of the classroom on a daily basis is not conducive to the educational process.

If there is an "accident," by the schools it could be disastrous. Just once could kill students from the hazardous material while waiting for the
