I'm very concerned about the Barrington High School kids' safety. The train tracks cross Main Street (Lake Cook Road) just to the east of the high school. I anticipate the kids racing to get to school on time and going home at the end of the school day and after extra curricular activities. They may try to "race" the train.

The traffic in Barrington is already a mess during rush hour due to the Chicago Metra with its stop in Barrington. This will only add to it. In addition, it may affect parents, etc., picking up children at the Barrington schools during the day for appointments, etc.

Where my home is located, I'm concerned as to whether I could get to the nearest hospital (Good Shepherd) in case of an emergency due to the freight trains crossing the streets.

I anticipate this could lower my property value in Barrington, as less people may be attracted to this area due to the heavy freight train traffic.
