1 MS. POTTS: The Mayor called me. He
Page 1

2 called and left a message on my machine.
3 That's the reason I'm here. I was so
4 shocked. And I called several other
5 neighbors, and he didn't call them. And 6 they said, well, probably the reason he 7 called you, you're so close to the track.

8 See, you go down 30 to Wolf
9 Crossing, and you take a left. And you go
10 out there until you come to Eola Road. And 11 I live on Carls Drive. And then there's 12 two trains that come by between 8:00 and 13 9:00 or 9:30 at night after I go to bed,
14 you know. One of them running normal and 15 the second one runs real fast.

16 But I haven't really felt a
17 vibration. But I think, though, that it's 18 there maybe. Well, I don't know where to 19 go with this. In the Mayor's talk, he said
20 our taxes could go up. And we don't need
21 that, because the real estate tax already 22 went up. I don't need that.
